1. INT. TOP SECRET GOVERNMENT BRIEFING - DAY

A small room with a select few politicians and an Army General.

INTRODUCTION: 2030:

New Government officials -- briefing:

Top Secret:

All new government officials Rank 5 or above have to see this evidence:

You will see a graphic detail of the details. Sadly the journalists who made this video perished in the line of duty (so we think.)

Some Troll Hunters found this footage. And while they were curious they read the government notice and embedded GPS tracker on the devices, and were smart enough to fetch the devices to the military. So we created this comprehensive video with the multiple footage stuff.

TIME:

oh I am not sure if I really want to be a politician after all!

The video is played on the big screen: so the first 20 seconds we see the video played on the big screen. Then we zoom in so that we can see the video as it was recorded.

2. INT. MEETING ROOM - DAY

There is a large meeting room with a meeting table. 9 government officials sit on the chairs. All with a paper in front of them with their name(from left to right; Sven Hansson, Dr. Thomas(+45, smartly dressed with glasses on)).

Banner: 1358 Law: Troll Protection Act - Top Secret.

We see the people in the room waiting anxiously. They look at their watch.

GUY #3

The Top Secret meeting that I had to attend. Starts at 9:00 AM. Did I miss something?

SPEAKER

Give it a minute or two. We are not dealing with a politician here.

LADY #1

Who or what are we dealing with, exactly?

LADY #2

My invitation was rather brief. Or let me say mysterious.

GUY #1

I think this has to do with that semi autonomous region up North.
Were we are not allowed to talk about or something.

ARMY GENERAL

Okay That is enough speculation. We are dealing with a highly motivated and passionate person. That is very involved in this region
(nods at Guy #1) up North.
He is so kind to give us an insiders view of the area. And why we should or should not keep this region autonomous.

Frederik comes walking in the room. He is dressed somewhat tight. However we can see that he is not used to wear clothing like this. His shirt is obvious too tight for his muscular chest and his shoulders are nearly twice as large as the other people in the room.

SPEAKER(Male 50+-) sits on the head of the table.

SPEAKER

There you are! We were waiting for you.

FREDERIK

Do you want me to stand all day long. Or do I get a seat?

Speaker pushes a button and a news broadcast is played on the extra large super sized LED screen.

/ Place holder - we need to see a photo of KNUT!

ON THE SCREEN

An angry crowd of a few dozen people is protesting at a police station. They wear casual clothing however 20% of the people have a shirt or banner with the text:"#Find_Knut!".

TV person talks with a serious voice.

TV PERSON

The angry crowd in front of the police station in Oslo, is growing by the day. The Police still refuses to investigate the disappearance of KNUT who is the World Champion Ski for the past 7 years. Who disappeared last week, with his wife and 2 teenage children. In the mountains up north.

TV PERSON

They were last seen at the Mountain Hotel in -Stor Fjellet-.

BANNER AT THE BOTTOM OF THE SCREEN STATES: Rowdy crowd grows larger amid rumors of foul play in the disappearance of Knut.

TV PERSON

Wild rumors are surfacing on the Internet: some people even went so far as to claim that Knut was take or even eaten by ancient Troll creatures.

TV PERSON

In the past years; some hoaxes went viral as the 2 documentaries of Trolls on the Kings Trail.

Still photo of Dave and Jake - dead in the cabin with Frederik with the Troll hunting Gun standing in the background.

TV PERSON

Some of the rumors are rather macabre and claim that unsuspecting hikers are fed to Trolls.

TV person is shown again.

TV PERSON

What do you think about all this crazy talk, Madison?

- Scientist Madison(60+-, Grey hair, glasses) - Even though it sounds strange. All the facts point toward something macabre up there. We have thousands of missing person cases up there. But everyone who tries to investigate this matter, turns up missing. - He is cut off the air.

TV PERSON

Oh oeps, there seems to be a technical difficulty!

BACK TO SCENE

SERIOUS DUDE

Now! We have seen the news, with the scientist Madison. Who mysteriously disappeared. Not even close to your Troll reservation.

FREDERIK

Are you trying to say that I, or we killed a clever scientist? That I have never even heard about before.

LADY #2

I am the minster of finance, I think this is a matter of national security and not for me.

Lady # 2 grabs her stuff and stands up. She tries to walk toward the door. Frederik blocks her way out, he is very subtle but makes sure she is unable to move toward the door.

LADY #1

I start to get the feeling we: as government have something to do with the disappearance of Knut and his family?

GUY #1

And of this scientist Madison?

Guy #1 looks around the room before his eyes land on Army General.

SPEAKER

Take it easy there! We have to discuss this matter in a professional way. Since we are getting some flak here.

FREDERIK

I just assumed that the government would know at least the laws of the country! But in case there are some misinformed or maybe ignorant people here in the room I will explain the situation as brief as I can.

Walks around the room, which somehow makes the people where he walks behind seemingly nervous.

FREDERIK

In 1358 there was a law passed in the first government of this nation. The law explicitly states that this law can not ever as in never ever, not even now or tomorrow changed. Besides that there is also in the law that bipedal creatures are the chosen food source for the Trolls. Humans happen to fall in this category. Therefore there is no mysterious disappearance in the case that Knut was eaten by a Troll.

GUY #2

What the fuck is this all about?

GUY #5

I can not remember that I was told about sacrificing human beings.

SPEAKER

Okay well, you may have hit a nerve here Frederik.

Frederik retrieves a stack of papers from his brief case. And hands them out to the people while he continues his monologue.

FREDERIK

Monologue.

Dr. Thomas stands up and waves the other people down while he talks with a loud and clear voice.

DR. THOMAS

Let me introduce myself briefly; I am Dr Thomas, I work for the government mostly behind the scenes in international and ancient laws.

Xxx

DR. THOMAS

That is correct, but let us focus on this pressing matter instead of the individuals. What Mr, Frederick just relayed to us: is indeed correct. The troll Protection Act 1358, is indeed still valid. Even though we tried to keep this law and the physical aspects of that law a close secret. In this day and age, the population is curious and very able to dig in the facts. In the ancient laws and on the ground in the Troll Reservation.

LADY #1

What does it all mean? If I read this law this monsters eat the human beings!

GUY #5

Even if you are correct, there is also something like the UN right to live! Right?

DR. THOMAS

There are always exceptions to that law. I will spare you the details but if you read the fine print all the way back in that law and dig through the actual references you will find that there is a --

Army general turns toward Frederik.

ARMY GENERAL

Laws can be changed or deleted by the might of the army!

Frederik walks up to Army General who in turns is fast to stand up chest up while Frederik confronts him.

FREDERIK

A man of your posture must have studied the events of 1566 xx!

Army General pushes Frederik away.

ARMY GENERAL

Sure do! But times have changed we can roll up and dismantle your operation in a matter of days!

BEAT

ARMY GENERAL

Let me ask you; why would we as a country keep suffering for 50 or so Trolls?

FREDERIK

Trolls? You make it sound as if they are farm animals! They are the beings of the Gods realm. The few survivors of the murderous carnage of the Humans. Who destroyed and killed all that was great.

ARMY GENERAL

It is a massive area that we can create new cities, new army bases or mine for all the iron ore, all the silver and gold deposits that are located in the area.

FREDERIK

ARMY GENERAL

Assuming you and this lawyer dude are correct. And assuming the politicians decide that they do not like the situation as you describe it. We may not be able to stop your little thingy. But let me remind you, that we do block all the Wireless communications all GPS signals. We stop dozens of well armed and well trained Would-Be Troll hunters on a yearly base. So let me remind you that we would all be better off if we find a working solution. Like between now and next week.

TIME

ARMY GENERAL

To prevent uneasy situations like this in the future. I would strongly suggest that you make a comprehensive video in the most expressive and on-the-nose way you can. So that new politicians or anyone who may need to know these facts get to see this. And they will know what's up.

Army General looks straight faced at Guy #5.

ARMY GENERAL

And they can not forget, that they were ever notified about the facts.

TIME

We see the time on the large digital clock on the LED screen-saver: 10:51 AM.

FREDERIK

Well considering the facts. We may be able to give you all the info you need.

SPEAKER

Okay! so, we will assign a professional cameraman to you. And then we can see what's up in your neck of the woods.

3. INT. INTERVIEW ROOM - DAY

In an interview room there is a table with 2 people on one side and opposite them there is Hans HANS(27, blond hair, fit male. Wears a T-shirt with a #Free_Knut text). The other 2 people are Army General and INTELLIGENCE OFFICER(55+-, male), in front of them there are 2 document folders and some papers they both have a pencil in front of them.

ARMY GENERAL

To our research you are single. And have currently no parents, brothers or sisters that are alive.

HANS

Yes, that is correct. But you can not blame me for all hardship my family had to endure. Often with tragic consequences.

INTELLIGENCE OFFICER

It is not our intention to make you feel uncomfortably. We just want to make a record. We have great trust in your abilities to make this mission a success.

ARMY GENERAL

What is the reason why you applied for this job?

Hans points toward his T-shirt.

HANS

I watch the world champion Ski every single winter. When I heard Knut is missing. Something went berserk inside of me. Then I saw this advertisement. If I can help in any way to find Knut or what has happened to him; I would do it for free.

HANS

The advertisement that I applied for for stated that there was a large reward for this 3 week assignment.

ARMY GENERAL

We have a budget of 50000 dollar for the successful documenting of this Top Secret reservation.

INTELLIGENCE OFFICER

Your job, is to film everything that may or may not be useful to us.

ARMY GENERAL

We have send a professional head worn camera with High Definition quality to Frederik who will be your guide. He will wear that most of the time of your deployment while we provide you with a professional camera for up close and wide angle shots.

TIME

The room is empty now and we see only the Army General and Intelligence Officer in the room.

Intelligence officer talks straight into the camera:

INTELLIGENCE OFFICER

This guy has no family, and is according to our research a Narcissist, and Psychopath. Who could see a murder happen right next to him and finish his sandwich right afterward.

Army general nods in agreement.

/ place holder: we may just add a secret task for: Hans.

/ - find the treasure

/ - find out about the tunnel complex

/ - why are the females never outside / among the "Humans".

4. EXT. FREDERIK HOUSE - MORNING

Frederik's GoPro - Is turned on.

It shakes around a little bit while Frederik clumsily handles the device. It shows the area upside down and we get a glimpse of Olaf although we can not see his head yet.

OLAF

I think you have to press that button.

Olaf his finger is seen up close while he apparently presses a button on the GoPro.

FREDERIK

A green light is bleeping. Maybe it is filming already.

OLAF

Let me see.

Olaf grabs the GoPro while he handles the camera it shows both their legs. Both have mountain hiking boots and black trousers.

OLAF

Yes now it is recording.

An instruction manual falls on the ground and is briefly seen in the footage. Just before Olaf puts the GoPro on Frederik his head.

OLAF

This should be on your head, just as a head worn flashlight.

The GoPro shows Olaf(45+-). Big muscular male, tight shirt/bear chested/business shirt?, black trousers/jeans).

FREDERIK

You know Olaf?

Olaf looks up to Frederik.

OLAF

No! I do not know.

The camera shakes from left to right and back again while Frederik sighs.

FREDERIK

When I was there in Stockholm. It was the weirdest experience that I have ever encountered. Hours driving, and nothing but concrete houses, asphalt roads and houses as high as the sky.

OLAF

Lisa once told me about that city Stockholm. She told me we would go crazy there.

FREDERIK

The people there, they seemed all busy; going from the 1 concrete house to the next, from the car into the buildings and back.

OLAF

Times have changed a lot the past 200 years indeed.

FREDERIK

So many people, you will not believe it. Literally millions of people. Just people walking by, driving in thousands and thousands of cars.

OLAF

What about food? They must have farms and animals, moose, cows sheep.

FREDERIK

Not in the city. All the food comes in packages, just as in the store at Klimpfjell.

Olaf turns around and grabs a olive green canvas backpack.

OLAF

Now that you talk about food. I become hungry.

FREDERICK

No wait! I am supposed to show this human our lifestyle in an uncensored manner. Wait till our guest is here.

Olaf drops his backpack and turns around rather quick while he talks in an agitated manner.

OLAF

You want to show a Human our diet?
What is wrong with you?

FREDERIK

YES!

Olaf takes a step closer to Frederik and is face to face real close.

OLAF

That will be the end of our lifestyle! You know that right?

5. EXT. TRAILHEAD - MORNING

Hans GoPro -

S.O. An ATV. The camera bumps as it comes to a stand still just in front of a hiking trail sign. Hans gets off his ATV and has a look at the trail signs:

"Stor Fjellet 29 KM" and "Klimpfjell 35 KM".

He has a look at where the hiking trails lead to. There is one that leads on to the mountain. That trail winds through the mountains while the second trail leads into the forest in the distance on his right side.

At the first trail there is a sign on both sides of the trail with a prohibited for vehicles image.

HANS

Okay! Here starts the journey.
After a bumpy ride at least I made it to the Reservation.

His camera points again toward the trail signs.

HANS

Good thing that I have a permit to drive here, or it would be a very long hike toward Klimpfjell.

The camera follows the trail-sign-post downward where there is a "Missing Person" poster of Knut and his family.

HANS

Seems to me that we are on the right track here. Off we go.

Hans walks back to his ATV, so we can see that his ATV is loaded with camping and camera equipment gear.

6. EXT. FREDERIK HOUSE - MORNING

Frederik's GoPro -

Points toward Olaf who still seems agitated.

FREDERIK

I just told you the situation Olaf!
They are with millions, even if we have the law on our side it is a matter of time before they know our lifestyle.

OLAF

We are mighty strong these days Frederik! Our population has just recovered from the massive losses at the 2 year war.

FREDERIK

NO! We have no choice here. The final battle is out of the question! They have weapons and millions of people.

(MEER)

FREDERIK (CONT'D)

Even if we make it to Stockholm.
How would we crush 100 square miles of concrete with the humans inside?

OLAF

Let me be clear here! You want to show everything?

The camera moves from top to bottom whole Frederik nods in agreement. Olaf pushes Frederik with his arms at Frederik his chest.

OLAF

What about our woman?

FREDERIK

Well I am not sure about that jet.
It may be somewhat uncomfortably for them.

OLAF

The museum?

FREDERIK

Let me fetch a fire first so we can have a proper breakfast with our guest.

Frederik grabs some twigs from a pile and chucks them into the fire circle.

7. EXT. TRAIL - MORNING

Hans GoPro -

Looks down on his fully loaded ATV on the seat there is a bag of hamburger buns and a half eaten hamburger bun with peanut butter.

HANS

So a little cheat meal. I am promised a fat rich mountain diet as provided by the locals.

His hand grabs a trail map which is folded open.

HANS

I should be there already but somehow this trail keep winding finding more mountain peaks after the next.

The camera pans over the hiking trail and follows the hiking trail. In the distance a plume of smoke is visible.

HANS

Right! Just when you think you are lost eh. There must be the place!

8. EXT. FREDERIK HOUSE - MORNING

Frederik's GoPro -

The fire is burning. A cast iron skillet stands ready with a rich pile of butter waiting next to the fire.

OLAF

I know you are the chief and all.
Just do not show him the tunnels!
okay?

FREDERIK

The tunnels? No damn! Why the hell do you start about that?

S.O. Small engine in the distance. They both however do not seem to hear it.

9. EXT. FREDERIK'S CAVE - MORNING

Frederik's GoPro -

We see a cave which is blocked off by a wooden wall, with windows and a door.

/ maybe change to traditional Swedish log home.

The door is open, so we can peek inside into the dark room.
The room is very traditional organized, or lets say almost medieval. A wooden rocking chair a mattress on the ground and some baby stuff.

It is a nice clear yet cold early morning that is indicated by the thin layer of frost across the landscape.

The landscape is a beautiful valley so we can see far and wide around nothing to see but brushes stones and in the distance some trees.

S.O. Small engine.

The GoPro looks that way and we see a rather large ATV coming straight toward the camera.

The ATV stops with a rather clumsy stop just in front of the camera. Then Hans Hand s bumps a little over the steering handles while he stops and jumps off his ATV.

HANS

Hey, there! You should be the awesome, famous Troll hunter.

We see the hand of Frederik grab the bag off the ATV and he drags it along and drops it down in front of a large fire circle.

When he looks around, there is Hans who drops his tent next to the bag.

HANS

Yeah, this is where I just wanted to place all my gear.

FREDERIK

I know these mountains pretty good and well. No need for all this fancy gear.

Hans laughs uncomfortably.

HANS

This, is the gear that I need to make a professional and legally useful video-log of this amazing adventure that we will be documenting.

The camera seems to size him up.

FREDERIK

Are you sure you are up to the job?

Hans grabs some papers from his bag and tries to hand them over to Frederik.

FREDERIK

What is all this?

HANS

I was selected from around 10 interested applicants. Chosen for my experience, my physical condition and my psychological profile.

FREDERIK

We will have some hard work the coming weeks. And you may see some things that you were not asked in your interview about.

HANS

It was kind of weird. They show this images of dead people, shot people, gutted animals. I mean nothing shocking really. I have seen stuff like that on a website on the Internet. And somehow I was supposed to be upset by those images.

Bla Bla

HANS

And then they gave me this lists to fill in. And it was stupid like: Do you faint when you see blood? ; Are you scared in the dark? ; Are you a vegetarian?

FREDERIK

Well, that is good knowledge. So I will not have to worry about babysitting you.

Frederik has a stare at Hans.

FREDERIK

Or fetch your food.

Hans starts laughing out loud.

TIME

10. EXT. FREDERIK'S CAVE - DAY

All geared up.

FREDERIK

Time to go.

HANS

No, we first have to document your living conditions. As our little cheat-sheet indicates.

The camera goes toward Hans and we see him with a list in his hand.

FREDERIK

You were told; that we are proud to live in the same way as our ancestors did I assume.

HANS

Yes, that is 1 of the most important factors if we want to make a justified case to keep this scheme going.

FREDERIK

A scheme?

Hans ignores the question and keeps walking toward the house cave.

Hans has a large professional camera on his shoulder while he resolutely walks toward the house cave.

Just before he is at the open door he stops and turns around to wait for Frederik.

Pro Camera - (This is the first time that we see that Frederick is actually Quad guy the antagonist from the first 2 movies.) We see Frederik walk toward the camera, he is dressed in black sturdy clothing that had its best time, a while ago.

He is clean shaved and his hair is styled - LONG or short -.

Frederik opens the door.

/ Place holder: maybe have Hans: lay out the film schedule:

- First your living conditions
- 1 regular day at work
- The Troll Habits
- General secrets that needs to be shown for future generation government officials.
- Results in some tension between the 2.
- use opportunity to shown and explain the camera setup!

11. EXT. FAKE INTERVIEW - DAY

Hans is interviewing Frederik so we see Frederik in the camera with his house in the background.

HANS

This video is recorded 2025, sanctioned by the Government and is classified as Top Secret.
Hey Ladies and Gentlemen; we are here in the beautiful surrounding of the Troll sanctuary. Our Guide is the man in front of you. So tell us in a brief sentence who we are dealing.

Frederik talks confidently into the camera.

FREDERIK

My Name is Frederik, my age is undefined for now. And we are indeed in the Troll sanctuary. My God Given Duty is to Protect The Trolls. Which are the last surviving species of the Gods realm.

HANS

I, know that you are not used to cameras in these parts of the country. However the audience wants to know you surname and age.

Frederik gets a little bit nervous.

FREDERIK

I, am trying here. Well here you have it. When I got my passport, it did not include a surname, when my passport was created we only had a single name. Which indeed is Frederik. My age even though no one can be sure, to my best knowledge is 727 years.

Hans looks surprised while he talks into the camera.

HANS

Okay Ladies and Gentlemen, this answer is not exactly what we expected. It even sounds a little bit far fetched. But let's try again. Can you show the audience your passport so they can just read the facts.

Frederik looks somewhat uneasy then straight into the camera.

FREDERIK

Okay, Top Secret you said! Right?

Frederik retrieves a document from his pouch. He hands it over to Hans. Who apparently looks into it off camera. Then the passport is shown while it lays on a rock.

We can read old ancient handwriting on a weathered piece of paper. Name: Frederik

Birthday: 1298

Race: Elf

HANS

Well folks here you have it. Anyway what about the task that we were given. Are we actually on the same page here?

The camera pans toward Frederik again.

FREDERIK

Give me a minute for a brief introduction before I can answer this pressing question to my best ability.

Frederik takes a deep breath.

FREDERIK

Once there was a mighty realm of the Gods. It consisted of giants, tiny Dwarfs, Elves, all magnificent creatures of the Gods. One by One they were exterminated, some among each-other. But most by this new specie called Humans. I will not use this minute to give you an history lesson. However Only some Trolls remained, the only place they were able to resist the ever encroaching humans were these barren and unlivable mountains.

Bla

FREDERIK

Someday a whole army of Swedes came here to eradicate the last Trolls on the planet. However stiff resistance from the Trolls and we, um, the local protectors of the Trolls resulted in the Troll Protection Act! That is our legal, right however to us, our God Given duty to protect this holy specie is even more important.

So the last words were spoken as if his statement was made, and the interview is done.

HANS

Yes, I agree. However What about the task that we are here for now.

FREDERIK

Oh right. Our task is rather simple. To create a video-log of our daily struggles to save this race of creatures from the ever encroaching Humans. Apparently the government is somewhat shortsighted and they forget about the laws of the land, the laws of the Gods. Some politicians do not even know what a Troll is. Or that it is their duty to protect their living space.

HANS

Okay, so more like a comprehensive and maybe even graphic video of the Troll sanctuary.

FREDERIK

Yes indeed. So, I will show you, and the camera. Every little detail, I will not censor any event, place or actuality. To convince the people over there in Stockholm that this place needs to be protected. Not only now but in the future. I do even want to thank the government and the media for the work they done for us in the past. However these days, with the Internet and camera's on every phone. We need more support to keep this out of the headlines on a daily base.

HANS

Where is your family Frederick? You told me before that you have a family somewhere.

Frederik nods into the distance. When the camera pans that way, we see a house which is partly build against a rock.

12. INT. FREDERIK'S CAVE - MORNING

The camera walks inside the rather dark room. The camera pans around a few times apparently looking for a door or a hatch.

HANS

Where to?

FREDERIK

Up North, to check on a Troll that has not been seen for a while.

HANS

No, I mean where is the rest of your house? Your bedroom? TV room? Man cave?

Frederik sighs.

FREDERIK

This is my house. If you want something else to film. You should not be here.

The camera pans toward Frederik.

HANS

Don't you have a family?

FREDERIK

I Do. But, she feels a little bit sick today. I, think that you will not have the chance to record her.
BEAT sadly.

13. EXT. FREDERIK'S CAVE - MORNING

Pro Camera - they sit at the fire circle in front of the house.

/ hamburgers with brains - Hans that tastes pretty good!

/ we also need: Better not show that - while he points toward Hans his T-shirt.

Frederik stands up.

FREDERIK

Stay here, Hans! I have to get something.

HANS

Oh, what?

FREDERIK

Just stay here, okay?

Hans messes around with his coffeecup.

Frederik stands up and walks toward the house in the background. Hans looks over and sees someone with long hair, in the window of the house. The person ducks down as soon as Hans looks.

Hans gets up and walks toward the window where he saw the person.

Frederik walks inside without looking back and leaves the door open a bit. Hans looks through the window, but it is dark inside. So he goes through the door and sees Frederiks Wife jump in the bed and covers herself with the blanket. She hides below the blanket.

Frederik sits on a wooden bench while he stuffs something in a black duffel bag. In front of the wooden bench there is a round tub filled with salt. Frederik looks startled at Hans.

FREDERIK

What the fuck, are you doing in here?

HANS

I saw a pretty woman through the window.

Frederik looks around in the room.

FREDERIK

I, think it is time for us to go.
She has a fever.

Hans walks with his Pro Camera toward the bed where, Frederiks Wife, lays in. He is pulled pretty hard all the way out of the room in a nanosecond.

He tries to stay on his feet while he is being walked all the way back to the fire circle. He is pushed on the very seat where he just left 5 minutes ago.

FREDERIK

I thought, that you would stay exactly here!

TIME

Pro Camera -

Frederik stands in front of his black quad, which has a black duffel bag on the back rack. Below the duffel bag here is a stack of hiking trail signs.

HANS (OFF CAMERA)

How does a typical workday look for a famous Troll sanctuary manager?

FREDERIK

Our main task, which usurps most of our time, is to maintain the hiking trails in and through the sanctuary.

HANS

Is that what you have all those signs for?

Frederik looks over toward his quad when he turns back toward the camera he nods in agreement.

FREDERIK

Indeed, but if you agree. We will go now. Since we have a long day work ahead of us.

Frederik turns around, steps on his quad and drives off.

14. EXT. TRAIL - DAY

Go pro - shows Frederik driving on the hiking trail. He passes a hiking trail sign, he drives passed it. Then the Go Pro on Hans his head passes the hiking trail sign as well.

15. EXT. TRAIL - DAY

They are in barren mountains with a wide view all sides around.

Pro Camera - we see Frederik stand in front of trail signs at a fork in the hiking trail. The trail signs are somewhat larger in size then usual and the letters are in a different and larger font then usual. We can read the signs that state: "Elga 15 KM" And "Roros 45 KM".

HANS

We are here at the second set of trail signs on the hiking trail that we passed today. Tell us what you are doing here as a Wild Life Ranger?

FREDERIK

As you can see over here (points toward the signs)
some jokers changed the signs which lead to the respected places. It is our job to maintain this hiking trail.

Frederik grabs 1 of the signs and pulls it off. He grabs 1 of the signs from his quad and secures it on the hiking trail sign.

TIME

The hiking trail signs looks like the usual hiking trail signs. We can read the signs that state "Stor Fjellet 9 KM", "Stor Fjellet 9 KM".

HANS

Frederik

Frederik looks straight at Hans.

Frederik retrieves 2 maps from his Quad and displays them on his Quad. He waves Hans over who looks at the maps as well.

Frederik points toward a specific place on the left map, at a fork in the trail. Hans his finger points toward the same spot, then at a mountain on the map.

HANS

That is not here. Because over there, there is no mountain as this map indicates.

Frederik his finger points toward the second map. Which is a hand drawn map of the area. With hiking and Snow Mobile routes through the area. His finger point toward a fork in a hiking trail. Hans his finger points there as well then his finger goes around apparently to check the area features.

HANS

This seems to be right.

FREDERIK

You are a smart human being. Most humans would choose the right map. Since that is professional and nice colorized.

HANS

Yes may be. But I assume if you go hiking in the middle of nowhere, you would want an accurate map.

Frederiks finger goes around the right map and shows that the hiking trail goes in a figure 8 shape and has only a single entry trail.

HANS

I can understand that you want some hikers to get lost. However what my mind can not wrap around. Is that in these days, all the satellites, hiking trail maps etc. There is no way in heaven that anyone could make or sell maps that are not correct.

FREDERIK

Satellites do not work in this area. Same goes for, GPS, Cellphones and even radio signals.

HANS

The army did tell me that reception was difficult in this part of the country. But I can not believe that they are selling maps that are incorrect.

16. EXT. TRAIL - DAY - PLACEHOLDER

Frederik - makes a lead up - campfire stories.

But: he talks about the miles and miles of caves beneath their very feet.

Dark caves, dark tunnels, full of evil, bones from giants, gods, whole armies disappeared in the ancient past in battles against the cave dwellers.

Hans: yeah nice story bro. I read that too in the fucking comic books.

Frederik:

Hans: so I guess we don't go to the caves because some lame excuse: As in, it is all bullshit.

Frederik: Excuses, the only excuse around here, are you!

Hans: well maybe true or not. but I do want to visit mysterious places, dark caves sounds pretty good to me. So you can not use me as excuse.

What is your next excuse.

Frederik: we can go there.

Frederik: Do you want to go there?

Hans: I applied for this job. They selected me, because i am the best.

YES I WANT TO SEE THIS NON EXISTING CAVES.

17. EXT. TRAIL - DAY

Frederik's head comes into views while the GoPro shakes a little bit and we see his head, check something on the side of the camera.

FREDERIK

The green light is blinking.

HANS

Good, then it is on. Just keep it on your head until you turn it off.

The Camera is put on Frederik's head. And we see Hans besides his fully loaded ATV. Hans jumps on his ATV and waits for Frederik to take the lead. Frederik drives through the barren mountains toward a fence in the distance. He drives up to 2 hikers that are just beside the hiking trail where it goes through the fence.

While he closes in on the hikers we can make out that they are a Male and a Female hikers. They turn around when they hear the Quad and ATV. And seem to wait for them.

Frederik stops just in front of them and has a look at them and their gear on the ground.

MALE

Oh um, yes we did not go in there.

FEMALE

We are really not sure if we are supposed to?

Frederik steps off his Quad.

FREDERIK

Why would you not go in there?

MALE

Well, um this sign, it states that a whole family is missing.

FEMALE

Yes, we really do not want to break the law or create any inconvenience with the search operations.

FREDERIK

The search has been canceled a while ago. The consensus is that they must have slid down and landed in the icy water in 1 of the numerous lakes.

Hans is seen looking at the sign on the fence just beside the hiking trail.

HANS

Hey, this is Knut.

Hans turns around exited.

HANS

Did you meet him, Frederik?

FREDERIK

Nobody, that I have spoken too. Have seen or heard from his family. Even though we have done extensive search and rescue missions throughout the area.

MALE

We are hiking the Kings Trail. We only have 3 weeks. If we can not go through this area. We will go back, and try next year.

HANS

The Kings Trail? I heard from that trail many times. Is that here?

FEMALE

Yes, of course. How can you not know. Are you not a Swede?

HANS

I am Swedish indeed. But I have never had the opportunity to explore it yet.

FREDERIK

The area is open for tourist, as it has been and will always be.

FEMALE

Do you have any tips, for hiking through this area?

HANS

Judging by your gear, you have a lot of experience and are prepared very well.

FREDERIK

Stay on the fucking trail. You seem like nice and decent people. We do not want to see your faces on a sign like this!

HANS

We can give you a ride if you want?

FEMALE

Oh that may be nice.

FREDERIK

We need to go Hans. We have a lot miles to make today.

Frederik jumps on his quad, and looks around and sees that Hans jumps on his fully loaded ATV and the couple straps on their gear. Frederik hits the mountain again and drives on the mountain.

18. EXT. CAMPFIRE - NIGHT

10:00 PM.

At the campfire.

After lead up - Hans is hungry all day long. Frederik barely eats.

Frederik makes some coffee, and grabs some meat from a wooden canteen. He fries it up.

HANS

Oh Man that smells real good. Just what a man needs after 3 fucking days? Without food.

FREDERIK

Don't you need to know if it fits into your city diet?

HANS

Dude. I never even talked about food for 3 fucking days. Just to see how long it takes for you to pass out without food. And now I would be concerned about the calorie intake?

They eat the first bites, and they swallow as if they were hungry.

HANS

Oh this is real good.

FREDERIK

Do you believe in Thor?

HANS

Thor? As in?

FREDERIK

Thor, or God as Humans like to call the divine.

HANS

No, with all the science in the world, all the space crafts, and the technology. There is nothing on this planet or beyond that we do not know.

19. EXT. FENCE - DAY

Boring scene - show the fence - something happens - we get some story about the fence.

FREDERIK

This fence is all that separate, civilization from total destruction.

HANS

What fucking fence? All that, I, see is a radio tower.

FREDERIK

It broadcasts the frequency that keeps the Trolls inside.

HANS

Yea I know. So Where are the fucking, Trolls?

20. EXT. CAMPFIRE 10:00 PM TALK - NIGHT

There is a big tent which is illuminated from the inside. 10 yards further there is a sleeping bag next to a rock.

Pro Camera - has a wide view from their setup.

Frederik sits at the fire circle and lights a small fire. S.O buzzer - beep -. Hans comes out of his tent and sits opposite of Frederik. He looks into the camera while he talks.

HANS

Well, it is 10 o Clock. Time for our daily roundup talk. Can you tell us, about the difficult situations you encounter here with the general public?

FREDERIK

Well, as you know, Humans, they are.. Let's say curious and annoying beings. They like to know everything, they like to film everything. And some, not all of them, like to shoot everything they can.

HANS

Yes, okay. Um. Can you describe us 1 situation in great detail. So we know sort of what you are actually meaning.

Frederik looks from the camera toward Hans without saying a single word. Then he stares into the fire.

HANS

Um.. Yeah we are supposed to talk for an hour every night. Well, they never defined who should talk, or about what. But, I, do want my paycheck at the end of this 3 weeks. So here we go: We were at the fence today, and we saw exactly nothing. We heard nothing. And this so called fence, was nothing then some towers standing proud doing exactly nothing. And now we are here in the dangerous Troll sanctuary at the camp fire doing exactly nothing.

Frederik sighs.

FREDERIK

You are somewhat impatient, is that ever relayed to you before?

HANS

Well, you are kind of boring, kind of useless. I just asked you for a single event. A single encounter. And you know not even 1 thing that supposed to have happened. Oh yes I forgot. In the past 727 fucking years.

Hans starts laughing out loud.

FREDERIK

Long time ago, it was a dark night, the rain was falling monotonous on the ground and the leaves of the trees. So I saw something way in the distance. It was a small light moving down the mountain. I, happen to know that down that mountain is where Troll Claus lives. So I noticed straight away, that there was something going on. So, I, walk over there. I start to hear voices. Which let me remind you. Does not happen often here. While I hide behind a tree observing the group of Humans. A shot Rang out! I hear the bullet sizzling just beside my head. So, I, took off running.

HANS

Great fucking story. As so often in the company with this character: nothing happened again.

FREDERIK

It was the first time, that we here in the mountains had to deal, with well armed, well trained Troll Hunters aided by thermal imaging devices. Until that date, we had the advantage to know these mountains. While the tourists had to resort to a lot of lighting to navigate and hunt in these mountains. Which made it rather easy for us to stop their illegal activities.

HANS

Well, we can't always stay in the medieval times.

FREDERIK

They took the wrong turn though. That shot, woke up Claus. He was grumpy that night, I can tell you that. So a second shot rang out. I heard Claus shouting and crying so loud. It still gives me shivers down my spine when I think about it. So I turn around and now I could see them. In the moonshine. So I, aim my Rifle. And shot them 1 by 1.

HANS

1 by 1, which indicates how many Hunters?

FREDERIK

I shot 4 of them. But up to this date we do not know if there were more. Anyway, when I got there. To clean up the scene; I found all this technological stuff, thermal imagine devices, GPS transmitters, walky talkies etc. It seemed to me that this was a well organized Troll Hunting party.

HANS

Well, that is at least better then nothing. However it sounds all rather dodgy to me. I have seen, not even heard any Troll.

HANS

That's a good one. Now it is time for singing right?

21. INT. HANS TENT - NIGHT

We see Hans in the tent making a selfie video.

HANS

Well, I start to doubt this expedition. In secret me was told, that I would see ancient creatures. Dead bodies, maybe even a shootout that could cost me my life. My expectation were large. However this character, seems to be a conman first class. He talk smoothly, has all the hallmarks of a pathological liar. Anyway, I will give this 2 or 3 more days.

(MEER)

HANS (CONT'D)

HANS (CONT'D)

Otherwise you can keep your money and I will do something else, more exciting than camping with a whatever, Elf, conman, bum, or maybe just a plain criminal. Over and out!

22. EXT. TRAIL - DAY

Placeholder - something must precede the next scene.

23. EXT. TRAIL - DAY

Pro Camera - They see a ski trail through the fresh snow, apparently from 2 sets of skis.

HANS

We need to follow this trail.

FREDERIK

No, we wait.

HANS

Wait for what?

FREDERIK

You will see.

Frederik hides behind a large rock, Hans follows suit.

TIME

S.O. Screaming in the distance.

HANS

Hey, that must be those skiers.

Frederik just sits still and listens.

S.O. Troll roaring in the distance.

Hans listens to the sound then he looks up to Frederik.

HANS

What the fuck is that?

FREDERIK

What does it sound like?

HANS

We need to help them!

FREDERIK

That sounds like Claus.

HANS

Claus? What the fuck?

FREDERIK

Troll Claus. He was out-casted by the Trolls. Since he is a bit smaller and smarter than the rest of them.

The screaming has stopped. However the roaring of the Troll is still heard.

HANS

We need to help them.

FREDERIK

It is our duty to protect the Trolls and provide food to the Trolls.

HANS

What the fuck does that mean?

FREDERIK

Just get your stuff. We need to get going.

24. EXT. TRAIL - DAY

Pro Camera -

They are having a break on top of a mountain. They have something to drink while they enjoy the view.

HANS

What is up with you? You tell me, that a Troll ate those hikers. However you are too scared to go toward that Troll?

FREDERIK

Look Hans; we are making a video log of the whole area, especially the Trolls. But we have to be careful not to disturb all the Trolls the very first day.

HANS

We could have a little peek at this mysterious Troll, Claus.

Frederik gestures with his hands to be silent as he appears to listen. Hans looks with an asking expression toward Frederik.

FREDERIK

Can you hear that?

HANS

What?

Frederik listens again. However we can not hear anything.

FREDERIK

A female! In the north east.

Hans looks around 360 degree.

Hans picks up the Pro Camera, he points across Frederik his shoulder and zooms in, on the forest edge. However we see nothing but stones and rocks from below the tree line.

Frederik jumps up and runs, runs really fast. Straight for the forest edge. He jumps over some stones head first, so he disappears behind the rocks. The camera zooms in where he jumped and Frederik comes into view with a female by the neck. The female screams out loud. Frederik pulls the female with him toward the camera.

HANS

Let her go!

FREDERIK

Can you pass me that duct tape from my bag?

Hans puts the Pro Camera on a rock so that we have a clear view of the Quad and ATV and Frederik with the female.

Hans grabs the female by an arm and tries to pull her loose.

FREDERIK

We saw you earlier today! Where is your boyfriend or was that your husband?

The female is totally hysterical.

CAPTURED FEMALE

Let me goo! Those fucking things are out there!

Hans pushes Frederik.

HANS

Let her go man! What is wrong with you?

Frederik raises his voice and sounds a little bit agitated.

FREDERIK

Where is that man from this morning?

CAPTURED FEMALE

They fucking killed him. They are huge like a fucking giant bear.

HANS

Let her GOOO!!

Hans tries to land a right punch on Frederik his head.

HANS

Why the fuck, are you doing this?

Frederik lands a proper and well executed karate kick straight at the chest of Hans, who flies a solid 2 feet backward with his head on the ground. Knocked out cold!

Frederik still has the female by the neck and arm. Then he stares straight into the camera.

FREDERIK

It is our policy, not to let anyone go out of this Troll sanctuary who has witnessed a Troll attack.

Frederik grabs the duct tape and tapes the hands of the struggling and screaming female. Then he puts her on the ground and tapes her ankles, with several layers of tape. Hans regains conscience and sits up while he shakes his head a little bit.

The females creams out loud.

CAPTURED FEMALE

Let me goo! I will not tell anyone!

Frederick tapes her mouth shut with the tape wrapping around her head.

Hans stands up and walks toward the female and tries to loosen the tape.

HANS

You can not do this Frederick!

Frederik grabs Hans by the neck and arm and puts him on the ground; next to the coffee.

FREDERIK

Why don't you have a seat.

Hans stays put while he looks at Frederik.

Frederick puts the bound female with great strength on the back of his quad. Then he takes a seat next to Hans.

FREDERIK

What is wrong with you?

HANS

She is a nice lady. Who just saw her husband get killed. And now you are going to kill her, or what?

FREDERIK

Your job is to, observe and document our lifestyle. Which, let me remind you is the lifestyle of our ancestors all the way back to the realm of the Gods.

HANS

That does not mean that I can not save a girl. From a murderous madman like you.

FREDERIK

Listen Hans; Trolls need to eat. It is our duty, to protect and feed the Trolls.

HANS

Why don't you feed them, cows, sheep, or fish maybe.

FREDERIK

NO! Trolls eat humans! Even though it may seem strange in this modern day and age.

The female is still moving and kicking in the quad.

25. EXT. TRAIL - DAY

Feed the Female to a Troll.

May or may not be Rosanna.

26. EXT. TRAIL - MORNING

FREDERIK

Are you hungry?

HANS

Yes!

27. EXT. CAMPSITE - NIGHT

1:00 AM.

Frederik wakes up and jumps out of his bed. Hans is still messing around with his laptop.

HANS

What is going on?

FREDERIK

It is time to eat.

HANS

Oh right. I thought we would starve to death! What is on the mountain menu?

FREDERIK

Do you remember those heads we recovered this afternoon.

HANS

Yes! But what has that to do with our dinner?

TIME

GoPro -

At the campfire there is Frederik and Hans sitting in front of the fire the 2 heads of the 2 Hikers(M-F) they recovered in the afternoon stand proud in front of the fire.

FREDERIK

Do you like female or male brains?

Hans looks straight into the camera.

HANS

You are joking right?

Frederik does not pay attention to Hans and grabs a large cast iron frying pan and places it on the hot glowing coals.

He adds some butter out of a wooden canteen.

Frederik grabs the female's head, places it in front of him on a flat stone. He takes out the eyes with his fingers and places them meticulous on a plate just in front of the fire.

Frederik looks at Hans, who looks in shock toward the head with the eyes gouged out.

FREDERIK

Are you not hungry after 2 days on the trail?

HANS

Hungry YES! But human heads?

FREDERIK

Are you not supposed to live the life of the official Troll
Guardians for this 2 week period?

HANS

Bla bla.

Frederik hands over the male's head.

Hans grabs the head reluctantly and places it in front of him. Frederik returns to his dinner and cracks the head open with a special hand forged ax.

He grabs the brains and chucks them into the hot butter in the frying pan. We hear the sizzling of the brains cooking.
Frederik smells the smoke from the pan and is seemingly content.

He grabs a wooden spoon and messes around with the brains.

When he looks at Hans he sees that Hans hesitates a little bit to crack open the skull.

FREDERIK

Look, I, don't get many visitors.
But, I, do know that you are supposed to be not a burden on my job. I, can not, babysit and fetch your food every night for you.

Hans tries a soft blow with the ax. - PLOF - the ax is stuck in the skull. When he tries to pull it out the head rolls over the ground. Just against Frederik's left foot. He kicks it back while the ax falls out.

MAKE LONGER SCENE

28. EXT. TROLL SITE - DUSK

They walk on the hill while the dark sets in. Frederik stops all of a sudden and waves with his arms to stay silent and stay out of sight. Hans tries his hardest however he steps on some twigs - Knick -. They both stand still. And listen carefully. Nothing happens.

FREDERIK

(whispers) stay silent!
They are just below there.

HANS

Yea, yea! I, am trying here.

Hans follows, Frederik, who walks the last few steps on the hill and lays down.

Hans lays next to Frederik, who point into the distance. Where a rock face is visible.

Pro Camera - zooms in, the rock face is shown up close. He pans down toward the bottom where some movement is visible.

A creature is seen walking for a few seconds, however it is too dark to make out what it is. Before it disappears below the rocks.

FREDERIK

Did you see him?

HANS

Something moved okay. But it seemed like a bear to me.

Hans tries to find it again with his camera, however it is totally dark.

HANS

Now it is too fucking dark.

29. EXT. TROLL SITE CAMP SITE - DAWN

Frederik and Hans wake up -- set up their equipment for a full day Troll sighting.

Hans sets up his Pro Camera on a stand.

Pro Camera - zooms in on the spot below the rock face. Where it sees Troll ROSANNA(female, giant, ugly, Troll) moving around.

HANS

Oh My God! Is that a freaking Troll?

FREDERIK

What does it look like?

HANS

No Freaking way!

FREDERIK

Her name is Rosanna. Her baby is Deviant.

The Troll walks around, then a baby Troll appears and they play around.

TIME

Go Pro -

They sit next to the Pro Camera. We see the display of the Pro Camera zoomed in on the Troll. And Hans who sips his coffee. Frederiks hand reaches for a coffee cup and seemingly drinks the coffee.

FREDERIK

As you see, they are the most amazing creatures in the world. They are the sole survivors from the realms of the Gods.

HANS

First I was, skeptical!

FREDERIK

I can imagine.

HANS

Tell me about the other creatures of the realm of the Gods.

FREDERIK

TIME

FREDERIK

Around this time of the year, when it gets cold at night. They are searching for a Winter Den to hibernate. Usually they stalk this Winter den for a few weeks when the dark sets in. To make sure that it is a safe and secure location to weather out the winter.

TIME

They are observing The Trolls that are doing this and that.

BANG - S.O. Gunshot.

The big Troll Rosanna, roars out extremely loud in pain while it falls down. When it gets up we see blood pouring out of his chest.

Hans jumps up.

HANS

FUUUCKKK!! What happened.

Frederik jumps on Hans and makes sure he keeps him down on the ground while he keeps his hand over Hans's mouth.

FREDERIK

Fuck! Poachers! They will shoot us if they see us.

Frederik looks over the hill and sees that 5 Troll Hunters take position around Rosanna. With their rifles pointed at her. Erickson walks close toward Rosanna. While he pans around toward Hans, who is watching the scene through the display of the Pro Camera. He has a close look at the display.

Pro Camera - Erickson walks slow and steady toward the injured Rosanna.

TIME

Hans waits until Frederik turns around, then grabs the Troll Hunting Gun.

BANG - S.O. Sounds of gunshot.

Pro Camera - Poacher #2 is shot in the head. His head explodes while he drops down.

Go Pro - looks down the valley where in the distance the Troll Rosanna is fighting with poacher 2. - BANG -. The camera turns around fast. And we see Hans with the Troll Gun. He drops down the Gun and is seemingly upset.

FREDERIK

What the hell.

HANS

They are killing Rosanna.

Shouting in SWEDISH/NORWEGIAN/ENGLISH.

Frederik runs toward Hans and grabs the Gun. We see Hans walk toward the Pro Camera.

FREDERIK

Make sure to film okay. We need this evidence.

Pro Camera - Troll Rosanna is down on the ground in pain, blood is pouring out of her body on all sides.

FREDERIK (OFF CAMERA)

Zoom in on the left poacher.

Camera zooms in on the poacher on the left side. The poacher is dressed in woodland camo, woodland camo hat and a small hunting rifle. We see a red laser beam it homes in on the poacher. The poacher sees it and looks up toward the camera. He aims his rifle toward the camera. BOOM - S.O. A loud gunshot close by. The poachers head explodes and drops down the ground.

HANS

FUCKKK!

FREDERIK

Now the poacher on the right side.

Bang - a gunshot rings out. We hear the sizzling of the bullet through the air. The camera pans toward the poacher on the right side. He is aiming his rifle straight at the camera. BANG - the sizzling is heard again.

HANS

He is shooting. Where are you waiting for?

The red laser light homes in on the poacher on the right side. He drops down and crawls toward a rock while the red laser light follows him on his back. BANG - the poacher drops down on the ground. Blood is pouring out of his back.

HANS

Good shot.

FREDERIK

Why did you shoot that guy? We were supposed to film this ordeal.

HANS

They just killed Rosanna.

30. EXT. TEMP SCENE HUNTED BY HUNTERS - NIGHT

So, they left most of their gear, so we only have a GoPro footage. They are hunted by those Troll Hunters. Hans wants to run, and run and run. But shots keep ringing out.

FREDERIK

Hey asshole. They have thermal imaging devices. So we got to stay out of their thermal vision. Running won't cut it, these days.

Frederik knows a little hide out place. Which is an old ancient Chapel. Which was hidden by some boulders. So they are inside and find this mysterious thing. Hans is still a little jumpy. While Frederik falls asleep like a baby.

Hans can snoop around a little bit. He got a small iridium-light so we got a tiny bit of green light. Just enough to see what is inside.

When he shift the statue of virgin Mary away, there is a tunnel. However it is blocked by solid concrete. We hear the snoring of Frederik. And small engines and voice shouting loud and clear.

Hans just sits still and listen to the voices that sound awfully close. Then shouting out loud. BANG - a gunshot rings out. Then Troll Roaring. S.O. Automatic guns.

Then the sound of Troll roaring.

31. INT. TEMP SCENE CHAPEL - DAWN

They are inside the Chapel, Frederik peeks outside. Frederik grabs his stuff and waves at Hans to come outside.

Hans keeps sitting.

FREDERIK

It is save now. No need to be scared no more.

HANS

What the hell is this place?

FREDERIK

Just an old Chapel.

HANS

Why is it hidden?

FREDERIK

None of your business.

HANS

It is actually. I am mandated to film and research every little secret. Why is this tunnel blocked, with solid concrete?

FREDERIK

It is blocked since, that leads into a tunnel/cave that runs for hundreds of miles down these mountains. And what is inside there, has to to hidden for at least 2500 years.

HANS

So, how many years have passed. It may be close enough to 2500 years.

FREDERIK

No, we still have 2350 years to go.

S.O. Small engines.

32. EXT. TROLL SITE - DAWN

33. EXT. TROLL SITE CLOSE - DAWN

Pro camera - walks up to Troll Rosanna that is on the ground bleeding from all her sides. She however is still alive and growls with a sad soft growling.

Sad and emotional moment.

BANG Rosanna is shot through the head and drops own on the ground. Hans breaks down in tears and cries.

Frederik walks off toward the poachers. The camera follows him while we hear Hans still crying.

Frederik walks resolutely toward The poacher that was shot in the back. The camera follows him close up. Frederik grabs the jacket of the poacher by the neck and drags him as if it is a bag of dirt, toward the Troll Den below the rock face.

We see the baby Troll hiding there. Frederik drops the poacher in front of the baby Troll.

Hans stays behind a bit while he films the ordeal up close. The baby Troll grabs the head of the poacher and screws off the head. He makes a soft growling noise while he sucks the blood out of the neck.

BANG. S.O. Troll hunting gun. Baby Troll is shot through the head. Drops down as a bag of dirt.

Hans breaks down again crying in total despair.

HANS

Why the hell?

FREDERIK

We are not allowed to let baby
Trolls alive without a parent.
Since they show unexpected behavior.

Frederik has a look at the Poacher #2. Grabs the rifle.

FREDERIK

.22 caliber. Just enough for some rabbits or foxes. What the hell are they thinking.

HANS

Bla bla.

Frederik walks up to the ATV of the poachers, there is a lot of equipment, a big strong net, several rifles and pistol a camo duffel bag. Frederik grabs all the loose stuff and secures it on the ATV.

FREDERIK

Let's start with cleaning up this garbage.

34. EXT. TRAIL - DAY

Pro Camera - is bumping around, we see Frederik drive the ATV from the poachers. He pans around and we see a barren landscape in the mountains. The trail they follow is covered by a thin layer of fresh snow. While he pans he back, we see the trail from the ATV through the fresh snow.

While he pans over Frederik he sees a tent. The tent is right on the hiking trail.

The ATV stops straight in front of the tent. The Camera gets off the ATV and films the tent. The tent zips open.

And Male and Female come out the tent.

Frederik appears in the view and talks to the hikers.

FREDERIK

Why the are you camping on the hiking trail?

MALE

Because you told us; to stay on the trail.

FREDERIK

Oh right, you took On the trail.
Quite literary!

FEMALE

There was a lot of shooting last night.

MALE

Yes! What was all that shooting?

HANS

Maybe you did hear some hunters?

MALE

That was NOT hunting. It sounded like big caliber, automatic gunfire.

Female walks toward the quad and has look around. The quad is full of ripped open tents, bloody clothing strewn on the ATV. Some rifles, hiking boots etc.

Frederik walks up to her and gently moves her back where she came from.

FREDERIK

That shooting last night, were the locals. They have a tradition to reenact the final battle which they won against the Russians in 1945.

MALE

Um, There were no Russians in Sweden in the second world war.

FREDERIK

That is what they told me too on school. But the locals have their own believes and traditions.

FEMALE

What is all that stuff on your car?

HANS

We took that gear. From some Troll Hunters. Who were illegally hunting for the ancient Trolls.

Male takes a few steps toward the ATV and peeks at the gear. He seems to analyze the gear.

FREDERIK

Don't believe this character he is a little bit special.
(nods) You know what I mean?

Male nods in agreement while he takes a few steps backward while he pulls Female a few steps backward.

HANS

They wanted to shoot a baby Troll, just to keep the head as a trophy.

MALE

A real reenactment I suppose.

FREDERIK

Oh yes, they like to make it look as real as possible. With reindeer blood, fake guns as the ones we transport for the local reenactment society.

FEMALE

What would be the fastest way for us to get out of these mountains?

Hans makes some clo

HANS

Xx

FREDERIK

You can go back the way you came from. Which is around 4 day hike. Or hike the way you are going at. Which is a 5 day walk up to Big Mountain. Where there is a mountain hotel.

Females looks at Male.

FEMALE

We better get going Male.

MALE

Yes, I think it is Time for us to go.

FREDERIK

Good, just stay on the trail.

Frederik jumps on the ATV.

Camera walks up to the ATV as well, but we overhear what Female and Male are saying.

FEMALE

Do you believe that story?

MALE

No, that was real fucking blood on those clothing.

FEMALE

We need to call the cops.

35. EXT. TRAIL FENCE - DAY

It is snowing a little bit. While the mountains are covered with a thin layer of fresh snow.

Pro Camera - Looks up the a hill where a trail is leading up. The trail is blocked by a fence with a padlock. On the fence and on the side there are large signs with nuclear waste site. Including the nuclear waste sign.

Frederik stands next to the fully laden ATV from the poachers. Frederik takes the padlock off. The camera walks up to Frederik.

FREDERIK

Keep rolling that video, you want to film this site.

36. EXT. NUCLEAR WASTE DUMPING GROUND - DAY

Pro Camera -

Frederik dumps the ATV off the ledge.

The ATV stands in front of a little wooden ramp across the cliff. Frederik has a look over his shoulder. Then he starts pushing the ATV, with great force. The ATV makes speed, and he runs while the ATV makes speed and the ATV flies over the edge of the ramp.

Hans walks with the Pro Camera, on his neck and walks toward the ramp. He slowly walks on to the ramp and walks in the path from the ATV through the fresh snow on the wooden planks.

He steps slowly across the ramp. When he is at the end, he pans the camera down. He sees a big pile of hundreds of vehicles, ATV, quads, etc.

HANS
What the fuck!

FREDERIK
You keep saying that.

HANS
All from poachers?

Frederik nods in agreement.

37. EXT. CAMPSITE - NIGHT

FREDERIK
We need to go to those hikers we saw this afternoon.

HANS
We just ate.

FREDERIK
Before it is dark.

HANS
They seemed like a nice and healthy couple.

FREDERIK
Yes, that is very very true! That's why we need to visit them.

Little interaction.

Hans walks behind Frederik reluctantly.

HANS
I am not going with you this time. Eating, is 1 thing but killing is an other.

Frederik sighs and keeps walking on.

38. EXT. CAMPSITE HIKERS - NIGHT

There is a nice new tent setup in the snow. it is totally dark.

Frederik shakes the tent while he wakes them up.

FREDERIK
Hey! Wake Up.

After a second or 2 the tent zips open - ZIP -.

A sleepy head comes out.

HIKER
What?

Interaction

FREDERIK
You can better move your tent. You are way off the trail.

HIKER
Yes! Good thing. that you remind us.

FREDERIK
It can be dangerous off the trail!

HIKER 2
Yes we will setup tent straight on the hiking trail tomorrow okay!

FREDERIK
Yes, that seems to be wise idea. I did warn you!

39. EXT. CAMPFIRE 10 PM TALK - NIGHT

Frederik and Hans sit at the campfire with a cup of coffee.

HANS
So what about this law thing?

FREDERIK
Long time ago, There were, elves, Giants, Frost Giants, Trolls, Dwarfs, and even some humans. However, the humans gained the upper-hand. And they killed, The Giants, The frost Giants, the Dwarfs.
(MEER)

FREDERIK (CONT'D)

There was only a small group of Trolls left. We as the natives lived in harmony with the Trolls.

Frederik throws a piece of wood into the fire.

FREDERIK

Some day, King Bjorn .0 had this bright idea. To come here and kill all the Trolls and Natives so he could claim the final victory. He did however not come alone. He took every male between 16 and 55 with him. Armed with the newest swords, bows everything.

Frederik stares blank into the fire.

HANS

Okay, what happened then?

FREDERIK

We killed them.

HANS

You killed who?

FREDERIK

Oh, I mean, they killed that army.

HANS

So they won the first battle?

FREDERIK

NO! I mean that they killed the whole bloody army. We ate them after we killed every single one. Including the King himself.

TIME

FREDERIK

That is why they erased this king and this whole time from the history. Since the whole generation was wiped out.

Time

FREDERIK

So 100 years later. King Bjorn 2, had this bright idea to invade our lands once again.

HANS

Okay

FREDERIK

So, instead of waiting for their attack. We charged with thousands of Trolls and Elves toward the capital and ransacked the entire country. When we arrived into the city: we demanded that law, that you keep referring to.

HANS

So that law was not really, to protect the Trolls?

FREDERIK

No it is! It was just forced upon them to accept or face total defeat.

TIME

HANS

What I don't really understand, is that you can wipe out a army of 20 000 with just a few thousand Trolls and natives.

FREDERIK

Well... We had a secret weapon. Or 2 even.

Bla bla

FREDERIK

Their names are Fjallar and Gallar. The last dwarfs on the planet. They however are invincible.

TIME

FREDERIK

So after that whole army was defeated more or less by Fjallar and Gallar. They went on killing and eating.

First the Trolls then they came after us, the natives.

HANS

Weird.

FREDERIK

So after everything we tried, burn them, shoot them, bury them, hang them, chop them up. No matter what we tried they always came back. So we locked them up for good!

HANS
I don't believe a single word of what you told me tonight.

40. EXT. TRAIL - DAY

41. EXT. CLAUS SITE - DAY

HANS
Better watch out! I have bear spray.

FREDERIK
Okay, I have this .50 Cal, Troll
Gun!

Hans looks at it.

HANS
You can't use that.

FREDERIK
Oh I can. Why shouldn't, I?

Hans wants to say something.

BANG - Frederik shoots his rifle in the air.

Hans and Frederik both look up toward their right side on the mountain. We can see a avalanche beginning.

HANS
That is why!

Hans jumps on his ATV and tries to drive off just to be engulfed by the snow avalanche.

The GoPro just jumps behind a rock before it is engulfed by the avalanche.

Loud rumbling of the snow stops, then there is heavy breathing.

And Frederik digging himself out of the snow. He shakes off the snow of his clothing. Then pans around and see just a small part of the steering handles. He walks toward it and shuffles the snow away. His right hand grabs the neck part of the jacket of Hans and pulls him seemingly effortless out of the snow and onto his feet.

FREDERIK
Better be careful with that bearspray, next time!

Hans looks bewildered around while he shakes off the snow off his clothing.

HANS

What about this weirdo Claus?

Frederik points at a specific place into the distance.

Hans starts hiking that way, as if nothing happened.

They walk 20 paces through the fresh avalanche snow.

42. EXT. CLAUS SITE - DAY

Pro Camera - Frederik walks in front and stops at the roof of a make shift dwelling, that is just sticking out of the snow.

Frederik starts digging on the side of the roof. Hans comes toward and places the Camera on the snow and we see them both digging.

Loud banging from inside the roof.

They both look at each-other and keep digging with renewed effort.

TIME

The snow in front of the door has been nearly all cleared.

GoPro - we see the hand of Hans grab the doorknob, Frederik's hand grabs the arm and pulls it away violently.

FREDERIK

We may, just keep a little distance now!

Hans looks at the GoPro and seemingly understands that it is time to take a few steps backward.

They both walk backward, KRAUWW - S.O. Frederik makes an extremely strange and loud noise.

Nothing happens Frederik tries again KRAUWWW.

Hans takes a few steps toward the door.

Then the door opens with a loud WHAM the door opens half way before the snow blocks it.

Hans walks backward a few steps.

Troll CLAUS(Troll, male, rather BIG, angry looking face), appears in the door opening. He walks straight toward Frederik who pushes him away with force.

TROLL

Roaring.

FREDERIK

FIKA!

Frederik uses his hands to say: take it easy Troll!

Troll Claus, calms down and looks toward Hans and walks toward him.

FREDERIK

Push him away, if you want to stay alive.

Hans hesitates a second.

FREDERIK

As hard as you can, or I will have to eat your brains tonight!

Hans charges straight toward Troll Claus, jumps, and pushes with all his strength. Troll Claus walks back 2 steps and is just able to keep on his feet. Troll Claus is seemingly laughing as good as we can make out a laugh on a Troll face.

43. INT. CLAUS SITE - DAY

Pro Camera -

Troll Claus walks into the dwelling, it is a near empty room, that looks a lot like Frederik's house. There is nothing but a bed of moss, and spruce twigs. Troll Claus takes a seat on the bed. And makes a soft sad roaring noise.

Frederik looks around and walks out the door again. He comes back with the Troll Gun.

Troll Claus jumps up and walks behind Frederik out the door.

They walk up the snow pile and both look into the same directing into the distance. Frederik hands over the Troll Gun to troll Claus.

Troll Claus, grabs the gun with both hands and has some issues with getting his nail on the trigger. After a delicate testing he seems to be happy with the grip and points the gun into the distance.

He aims and shoots - BANG -.

The camera shakes a little bit.

HANS

WHAT THE FUCK!

FREDERIK

FREDERIK

Did you never, hear, a real gun before?

Hans looks into the distance where the shot went to.

FREDERIK

About 2 miles.

Hans grabs his pedometer, and is laser guided distance hectometer.

We see the display +- 2 miles.

Troll Claus starts hiking, Frederik follows close by.

44. EXT. SNOW COVERED TRAIL - DAY

Troll Claus walks through the fresh snow, then stops all of a sudden. And looks to his right side. He makes a few fast running steps and jumps into the fresh snow.

Frederik and Hans run behind him, and see a dead moose shot in the shoulder. Troll Claus stands above the Moose and cuts his hide with a nicely made stone knife the size of a sword.

Troll Claus cuts the moose meat nice and clean. He cuts two small - human sized stakes from the Moose and hands them over to Hans and Frederik.

Frederik grabs his Troll Gun while he makes the strange noise again KRAUW. Frederik and Hans walk off.

45. EXT. TRAIL CAMP FIRE - NIGHT

Pro camera - 10.0 PM talk

The camera shows Frederick and Hans sit at the campfire. Both have a cup of coffee in the hands while they stare into the fire.

HANS

Well, it is 10 o clock again, time for our daily round up talk.

FREDERIK

What transpired today was a average day at the office. So, we will let the video data, speak for itself.
However

HANS

Are you sure?

FREDERIK

It is the end of the summer, this high in the mountains. The autumn is gone as soon as the snow suddenly appears. This time of the year, the Trolls relocate to their winter den.

HANS

FREDERIK

Tomorrow we will visit the Collection museum, for our weekly check up. However this collection site is the preferred winter den for the extremely dangerous Troll Mead Head.

Hans looks confidently into the camera.

HANS

With this guy around, I am not scared for any Troll. He even goes hunting with those freaking things.

FREDERIK

Ho, ho, ho, boy! Mead Head, is a totally different story. He is altered by the ancient Mead. Crafted from the blood of the most genius, most smartest of the Giants; that ever roamed the realm of the Gods.

46. EXT. TRAIL - DAY

The trail leads through a sparse pine forest.

Go Pro - is on Hans his head.

Frederik walks 15 feet ahead. S.O. Troll running.

47. INT. TROLL COLLECTION MUSEUM - DAY

Inside it is pitch black.

Frederik flips over a switch - click - the light goes on. Revealing a macabre sight of dozens of heads lined up against a wall. The dates go up from J207 all the way to 2020!

Every head has a year below it and the heads match the years. So we see primitive heads, viking heads, medieval heads, all the way to modern heads.

The last 2 heads are from Frank and Dave, with the dates of 2002 and 2020!

1 of the heads: the one of 1372 has a beard and a golden crown on his head.

Most of the heads have a painting/drawing or a Camera device at the head. The camera devices match the times of the years.

Frederik stops at the end of the line of heads, where there is a prepared spot for a head.

He puts the black duffel bag that he has had around all week long, on the ground. Hans has a look at what, Frederik, is doing.

Frederik opens the duffel bag and grabs the small black plastic bag out of it and grabs a Male's head out of the plastic. He keeps the head in front of the camera. It is the head of Knut (World champion of ski, which the first scene opens with). The head is covered with salt.

Frederik keeps the head on the spike which was prepared for this head. He keeps the head on the spike.

FREDERIK

Can you hit this head, as hard as you can?

HANS

Wait, I will place my camera.

FREDERIK

No it is okay! My Go Pro is running.

GoPro - We see the head of Knut just above the spike, in Frederik's hands. Then the camera pans toward the right side, where we see Hans. With his arm and his fist just above the head.

FREDERIK

Just hit it once! As hard as you can.

We see Hans his fist slam HARD on the head. The head jumps down half a foot and stands proud on his last resting place.

Just below the head there is a sign with the year: "2025".

Frederik uses a paper towel and wipes the remaining salt from the hair and face of the head.

Then he grabs a, Samsung S20. And places it below the head in the stand.

HANS

Why, do you place the head of Knut.
And not from 1 of the poachers.

FREDERIK

We only place, notably heads in this collection. We have politicians, Media personalities and even a King.

HANS

That King, must be the one you told me about. The King that was erased from history.

Frederik points toward a specific head somewhere in the center of the line of heads. Where there is 1 head with a golden crown.

=====

On 1 side of the room there is a big pile of video equipment, all sizes and from ancient time capture image devices all the way to modern I-pads.

FREDERIK

You see what I mean. They all invade our property and insist to video and photo everything.

Hans is first shocked - and intrigued and walks around the heads and stuff.

TIME

Hans is going through the photo devices he picks 1 up has a very close look and tries it.

HANS

Do you mind? If I take this ancient antique 5 inch video camera?

TIME

Hans looks around and sees a similar statue as they found in the Chapel. He walks straight toward it, with his bright flashlight. He tries to move it, but it does not move a single bit. So he checks and sees that the statue is secured on a concrete platform from 6 feet by 3 feet wide. The concrete stands out of the cobalt floor.

HANS

Hey Frederik.

FREDERIK

What?

HANS

What is below here?

FREDERIK

You wont believe it. Even if I showed it to you. So just video-log this stuff. Then it is time to move.

Hans is intrigued with the concrete so he tries to stamp on it, tries to stick a knife on the side.

FREDERIK

Do you think that you can dig through 200 feet of reinforced concrete, with 2 feet thick metal plates every 10 feet?

Hans walks up to Frederik.

HANS

You are not trying to tell me, that this is an entrance in those elusive tunnels of you?

FREDERIK

NO! I, am trying to say that, it is, time to go.

Semi Time

Frederik starts to get a little bit nervous.

FREDERIK

It is time to go. LIKE NOW!

HANS

Dude, this is the most exiting place that I have ever seen. The most interesting you have shown me all week long. And now you want to go? I, have not even made a close up of your mysterious King Bjorn .
0.

FREDERIK

It is getting dark.

HANS

I, told you before, that I am not scared for the dark.

FREDERIK

Okay, be fast. Because we won't be back no more here.

/ because Troll Mead Head uses this place to hibernate. And this is the time of the year they come to get used to their Winter den every night.

Hans who makes some close up video shots, while he narrates with a jumpy voice.

The camera goes through the heads close up shots with their respected dates and video recording device.

He stops at the head of the King .0

HANS

Hey Frederik! Now it is the time to tell your story about this unsuspecting hiker with the crown.

Frederik, tells and tells the story. In great detail. As if he was there.

FREDERIK

Are you sure?

Hans nods.

FREDERIK

Okay, well you better listen carefully because I will tell the tale once, once and for all!

Frederik gives Hans a stare.

FREDERIK

We had a peaceful life, however some day there was a giant army of Vikings led by the man on the pole with the crown. His name was King Gustav. With the tens of thousands they marched through the mountains. Unbeknown to them, we were alerted of their arrival way in time. So, we were prepared for the final battle, that we had trained for, for generations as our believes thought us to prepare for a final battle here on earth as well as in the afterlife.

S.O Troll roar outside.

FREDERIK

We had opened 1 entrance into the cave complex and strew a few buckets full of gold and silver on the trail leading into the cave complex.

(MEER)

FREDERIK (CONT'D)

As Humans are programmed to, they followed the gold trail, and walked straight into the trap. After most of that army was inside we closed that entrance once and for all. It was never opened again. However we found Vikings loaded with gold silver and anything that is valuable throughout the cave system.

HANS

That must be a nice place to die.

FREDERIK

Apparently word had gone out, of the gold and silver and treasures beyond believe. Thousands and thousands of vikings came running all disorganized looking for the gold silver and treasures. Then we moved in, thousands of Trolls led by us the Elves. Let me tell you, it took us great effort to prepare the Trolls for war. But in the end we succeeded. They were mighty warriors, not scared for death. So we moved in waves after wave. We crushed them, slaughtered them, ate them alive.

HANS

And that is the same story as on the painting?

FREDERIK

Indeed! That is why we preserved that painting outside of the tunnel system that is closed for ever.

HANS

What about the midgets in that painting?

FREDERIK

Fjallar and Gallar?

Frederik seems to think, if he should tell, or not to tell.

HANS

Those 2 midgets that attack that viking with the massive ax.

FREDERIK

Yes, I know. That are Fjallar and Gallar.

(MEER)

FREDERIK (CONT'D)

They were resurrected from deep sleep down there. 1 of the Vikings, was too curious; not to push the button. So the flame of eternal death and destruction was shown. The mighty flame shone straight on to the sleeping Mead Heads.

HANS

It almost sounds as if, you were there.

FREDERIK

Well, you know you will not believe the truth anyway. But those are the facts, as I witnessed and experienced them. In my youthful and rowdy days.

HANS

Who is this Girl you talked about?

FREDERIK

That would be, my wife by now.

HANS

Why have I not seen your wife by now?

S.O. Troll roaring real close by.

FREDERIK

Shh, now it is the time to shut up.

Hans ducks down. And slowly tries to peek through the window. Just while he tries to stand up, he is pulled down by Frederik's hand.

Hans is a little bit agitated.

HANS

Why are you so scared for this Troll? You have a freaking Troll Gun.

FREDERIK

This is not just any Troll. This is Mead Head.

HANS

Yeah, well, you are a meat head yourself. I have seen you eat nothing but meat.

FREDERIK

MEAD, not Meat!

HANS

What is the fucking difference.

The Troll MEAD HEAD (Troll, 10 feet large, ugly face), bangs on the door.

Frederik makes a run for the door to place a big metal beam (4 feet) across the door to shut it down good and well.

They hide in the dark next to the heads on the sticks.

HANS

I, thought that you was this, fearless warrior. And now you are scared for a single beast.

FREDERIK

Do you see that head stick over there. Without a head?

Hans looks over and sees an empty stick with a sign on it: 2025.

HANS

Okay! I, get the hint. I will shut up.

HANS

I, just don't believe that this tunnel would run from that Chapel over here. That must be at least 15 miles.

FREDERIK

Yes! I, know. You do not believe anything. Yet you have witnessed and recorded things that no other human will ever see. So, I, guess there is no need to talk no more.

The banging starts to get louder and the roaring sounds around the building.

S.O. The door smashed in, we see the Moon light shine through the door. And there is a silhouette from Mead Head. Frederik crawls across the room to his gun.

Mead Head stops all of a sudden and looks straight toward Hans. Hans crawls backward. Frederik takes aim -- Mead Head starts to run across the room toward Hans. BOOM - S.O. LOUD gunshot. The Troll drops down.

Frederik shouts out loud.

FREDERIK

Run! Hans!

Frederik runs himself through the door. While he looks back he sees Hans running just behind him and Mead Head walks behind him, seemingly disorientated.

48. EXT. TRAIL - NIGHT

They Run and hear Mead Head chasing them. So they nearly fall on the ground. Yet Frederik picks Hans off the ground as if he is a rag-doll.

49. EXT. TRAIL - NIGHT

Frederik, Runs just behind Hans who runs in his T-Shirt through the fresh fallen snow.

We hear them both breathing heavy. After 20 paces Hans falls on the ground.

He tries to get up but he is too exhausted.

HANS

You go Frederik. I can not walk anymore.

Frederik jumps next to Hans. Hans, tries to keep his breathing down. While he looks paranoid around.

There is nothing to see, nothing to hear.

HANS

Why the hell, is that motherfucker. Still alive? I saw how you shot him in the fucking chest.

FREDERIK

You will not believe it. Even if I told you.

HANS

With a fucking canon. I may be deaf from that shot. And he just keeps chasing us?

FREDERIK

Once upon a Time. Long time ago. There were 2 Dwarfs called Fjallar and Gallar. They, were smart, evil, beings. The persons for whom the death penalty was invented. They had an idea. They took the blood from the most intelligent Giant that ever roamed the realm of the Gods.

(MEER)

FREDERIK (CONT'D)

They mixed with water and wine. And so they created MEAD. The elixir for intelligence beyond believe.

HANS

Yes I know your stories. And in the end nothing happened.

FREDERIK

That is if one takes a little sip. However Fjallar and Gallar are the kind of persons, that could not take a little sip. So they drunk, and drunk as much as they could.

HANS

Yea, that Troll Mead Head, sure seemed like a Dwarf to me. Just as much as you could be a freaking Elf.

FREDERIK

Some day, we the protectors of the Trolls. Made a mistake we are still suffering from today. We let our guard down in the face of evil. So this baby Troll got a hold on the last little bit of Mead that was still around in the abyss of the tunnel network.

HANS

Ah forget it. Now you are loosing me. How do we stay out of reach though from this Troll.

FREDERIK

Well, as I told you before. Mead Head stays around his Winter Den. We are now out of his space.

HANS

All your stories end up, or begin in this mysterious caves. Yet I have not seen it.

50. EXT. VILLAGE ENTRANCE - DAY

GoPro -

Frederik needs to meet up with Wild Life resources to get a hold on the other Frederik as safety procedure dictates that they can not know each others location.

They walk on the Hiking Trail, into the village. They walk passed a sign on a tree that states: Missing since 2024.

+ Photo of random hiker (Male, 20, camouflage clothing).

+ telephone number.

They walk by it without paying any attention to it.

Frederik stops walking all of a sudden and looks into the distance where Hunting Guide - Erickson (with tight shirt and black baseball cap), stands in front of 6 well prepared guys. Each one of them has a camouflage colored duffel bag and a black backpack on their backs.

They seem to be recorded by a Hans with a large video-camera in the same outfit as the other guys.

Seemingly he is explaining something to the group.

FREDERIK

Walk around that way!

Frederik pushes Hans the other way and walks behind him.

There is a Chapel in the background.

FREDERIK

If you look around over here, what do you see?

HANS

I see a Chapel.

FREDERIK

Yeah tell me about it. That is there for the past 800 years.

Hans walks toward it, Frederik follows, Hans has a look around.

HANS

There is the concrete again. You must be bullshitting that those are for tunnels.

FREDERIK

Yes, that is what I would say. But we should go now, before that Troll Hunter recognizes us.

51. EXT. VILLAGE SHOP - DAY

They walk into a grocery store.

Go Pro - Frederick - Hans walks through the entrance fence a middle age couple is discussing what kind of cookies to buy. They talk rather softly so we can not hear what they say. But they look up as they hear the small entrance fence close after Hans walks through it.

So the couple puts the cookies back and grabs an other pack of cookies to read the ingredients.

Quad Guy walks through the entrance fence, the fence closes. The sound attracts the eyes of the couple. They put the cookies back and walk off silently through the shop, out of sight.

When the camera pans toward Hans, he just puts some candies into his shopping cart. He walks two steps and places a six pack of beers into the cart

QUAD GUY

I thought that you were eating healthy and now you start drinking?

HANS

After all we have gone through tonight. I deserve a smoke and a beer.

Semitime

The camera checks the meat and is focusing on the back side of the freezer. It is an open freeze from the top, with frozen, fish, frozen meat. Quad Guy's right hand grabs a packet from the back of the freezer with a human brain in plastic wrap. Suddenly he is slapped on the back, pretty hard. The camera pans toward, Big GUY OLAF (BIG male, 45+-)

OLAF

Long time no see. How did it go with this government meeting follow up?

QUAD GUY

They were in a hurry, and this human is the professional Hans that they have assigned to us.

OLAF

We have a lot of questions for you in this undertaking however this may not be the right place for our pressing questions.

QUAD GUY

Yes! I totally agree. Anywhere but here!

OLAF

Why don't you come over for dinner tonight with me and my family?

QUAD GUY
That is a better place for this discussion indeed.

Quad Guy slaps Hans on the shoulder.

QUAD GUY
My friend here will come along.
(nods at Olaf)

OLAF
Hey friend, what would your name be?

HANS
My name would be Hans! I am send by the government, to document and register the natural environment of this area.

OLAF
Nice to meet you. My Name is Olaf.
And I am a childhood friend of this man next to you. We go a long way back. Long time ago, we went to school together. The times were different back then.

QUAD GUY
OLAF!

Olaf looks at Quad Guy.

OLAF
Right! My wife doesn't feel really well Hans! So if you come along tonight I guess we will have to do with the 3 of us.

HANS
Oh what a shame, I looked forward to document the family life of the natives. I guess that there is a bug running around since Quad Guy's wife was sick as well.

QUAD GUY
Life in these parts can be hard when the cold sets in at night.
Anyway we will be at your place in a few!

OLAF
What should I buy for this human for dinner tonight?

While he says that he nods a little bit suspicious at Hans.

FREDERICK

No it is okay. He kinda likes our diet.

Olaf looks with an asking face. While Frederick shows the brains in his hands clear in the open.

OLAF

That look tasty indeed. But we need more if we want to eat with the 3 of us.

TIME

At the counter Olaf pays for 3 brains in plastic wrap. Quad Guy stand just behind him with a single brain in plastic wrap and a six pack of cold coffee cans. 1 yard behind him stands Hans with some food and stuff.

Lisa looks at Hans and checks him out. Hans catches her eye and winks at her. Lisa has a close looks around the shop and sees that it is empty.

LISA

You are not as Big as the other Elves.

Hans looks from the brains to Quad Guy.

But he refrains from saying anything.

LISA

You are the first person, that I have encountered in all my life. That eats; The Elves food.

HANS

Elves? And what are you?

LISA

Oh my! You do not know about Elves? But you walk with them? And eat their, um Diet!

HANS

They do seem rather large. Is that coincidence.

LISA

I, am not allowed to talk about Elves. However you may try to avoid walking in the dark with one of those BIG GUYS.

HANS

I, happen to spend 2 weeks in the dark with Frederik.

LISA

You may be the first Human ever, that survived that. But I can not talk anymore about the people that are not talked about.

HANS

Why are you so scared to talk about my friend?

Lisa looks from the 2 frozen brains toward Hans.

HANS

No way.

LISA

Yep, I would not be the first person to end up in the freezer.

Hans is still chatting with the cute lady at the counter.

QUAD GUY

Hey what did I miss here? Do you still come, or do you stay here with your new wife?

HANS

Hey, I just invited this beautiful woman to the party tonight.

QUAD GUY

Um, well that should be just fine.
We know her pretty well.

Frederik walks off screen.

HANS

Hey, do you fancy a dinner tonight?

Lisa is a little bit surprised but she smiles at Hans.

LISA

I do not care about the dinner. But a fine young man like you. Should be just fine for tonight.

Frederick comes walking back into the store.

FREDERICK

Lisa, there is a group of nosy tourists, that seem well prepared at the pub. Could you go there - have a drink and tell us tonight what they are up to?

Lisa smiles uncomfortably and then she nods in agreement.

52. EXT. OLAF'S HOUSE - DUSK

/ Frederik: Dude: I have been in a place where an area as large of the freaking valley. Is concrete, concrete buildings as high as the sky. Millions literally millions of Humans walking around as if it is the most normal thing in the world. Vehicles hundreds of thousands. They will make this whole area into a freaking city if we loose the support of the government.

The 4 of them are sitting at the camp fire outside the house. There are 4 plates 3 of which freshly fried brains are on the plate. While Lisa has an empty plate.

Lisa looks somewhat sad.

HANS

Hey, is this not rude. Like fucking rude?

FREDERIK

Well, it is your wife. Why don't you fetch her some of your candies and stuff.

OLAF

I am so sorry Lisa, I did not know that you would come over otherwise I would have bought some Human food.

LISA

No, it is okay. I am too fat anyway.

HANS

Aw no, you are not fat. Not even chubby you are beautiful and slim as can be.

FREDERIK

Mead Head attacked us tonight!

OLAF

Oh Lord! How did you get away?

FREDERIK

It was close. But he is preparing for the Winter already. But we left most of our gear in the Museum.

OLAF

Did that guy see the Museum? He should be exposed of ASAP!

FREDERIK

It is okay, he is the Hans from the Government which I told you about last time.

Frederik turns toward Olaf.

FREDERIK

At the museum, we caught two treasure hunters with a map. The same exact map that we retrieved from a group of well armed well trained Troll Hunters.

HANS

It was real close. That angry Troll, nearly killed Frederick this afternoon.

FREDERIK

Good thing you filmed it all close up!

Frederick stares at Hans.

HANS

I am send by the government to, film everything that may or may not be useful

FREDERIK

Anyway; the public also keeps changing the trail signs to the actual right places.

OLAF

Yes, on this side of the sanctuary, we experience increased anti Troll behavior as well.

FREDERIK

The leader of the Troll Hunting party got away. We saw the same guy in the village this afternoon.

Frederick turns toward Lisa.

FREDERIK

Did you get some info this afternoon Lisa?

Lisa turns her eyes from Hans toward Frederick.

LISA

Oh yes, they are professionals. They seem well prepared the leader was explaining something about the terrain. They all had a trail map in front of them. When I tried to have a closer look; they all turned the map upside down. But before they did so, I did have a quick look. There were 2 specific points on the map.

OLAF

That sounds, not good. We have to get these guys and their maps before they find the Tunnels or the Museum.

FREDERIK

I know that I should not go there. But, with the government interested and the camera man present. The dire situation; we may have to show the government everything this time.

While Hans is chatting up with Lisa.

HANS

I did buy you something special. Just for you I went to the shop.

Lisa looks at Hans his food on his plate.

LISA

You do know what THAT is, right?

HANS

Yes, I sort of know what that may be. And I had a taste of this before.

LISA

How does it taste actually? Most people around here think that it is disgusting.

Hans cuts off a tiny piece of the meat.

And holds her the fork with the meat. Lisa looks with a dirty face.

LISA

Hey you are a nice person. But I have to show you something in private.

They leave into the house.

OLAF
Oh jay, Humans.

Frederik starts laughing.

FREDERIK
Yeah, what can I say. Humans, always filming, killing and if that does not succeed they just fuck it.

OLAF
Yes indeed. And that is the person you want to show our little secret to?

FREDERIK
We have no choice really. We need the support of the Government if we want to keep our lifestyle.

OLAF
I am too busy around here but I will contact Bjorn, he has a key as well.

53. EXT. OLAF'S HOUSE - DAY

54. EXT. GALLAR CAVE - DAY

Frederik is waiting near a pile of boulders.

Hans is waiting impatiently.

HANS
There is nothing here. Why don't we go back to the camp site?

S.O. Small engine. A black Quad comes driving toward them.
The guy on the Quad, Bjorn(40+, strong male) is very similar as Frederik.

Frederik and Bjorn greet each-other.

BJORN
Are you sure, that you want to show, and document this?

FREDERIK
We have no choice. We are being killed, shot at on a daily base.
(MEER)

FREDERIK (CONT'D)

We need to show the government everything. So they will understand the situation.

Bjorn retrieves a set of keys, Frederik does the same.

Without a further word spoken, they both grab 1 of the boulders and roll it over. A part of a concrete structure is visible. They roll over some more stones and a heavy iron gate is visible in the concrete housing. Bjorn inserts a key into the keyhole. Then Frederik and Bjorn both grab their Troll Guns.

Bjorn opens the iron door and we see a hall with a second iron door. Frederik walks up there and inserts a key and opens it.

55. INT. GALLAR CAVE - DAY

Hans seemingly becomes interested and shines a bright floodlight on the door. The light reveals yet another even stronger door.

HANS

What the FUCK!

FREDERIK

Are you scared?

HANS

Well.. What is behind there?

1 more door is opened.

They come in a dark cave. There is the Canister(the same as on the painting in the Collection site) on the side with a black gooey. There is also a stack of bones, old clothing, and a lot of empty shell casings, empty gas tanks, broken ropes, broken steel cables.

Frederik and Bjorn are discussing how to proceed and Bjorn takes off. we hear the 3-th door slam shut with a loud metal - KLANG -.

In the meantime Hans has a look at the Canister, he smells it and is seemingly disgusted. Yet he sticks his finger inside and has a taste. He then grabs the jar and takes a gulp of the liquid. And sounds as if he wants to puke.

HANS

Are we trapped?

FREDERIK

Yes, we can only get out, with the help of Bjorn. Just a safety procedure.

Hans grabs the bag that he had with him. He takes 2 human heads out of the bag.

HANS
Were do I put it?

Frederik point toward the center of the room.

While he hands over the skull fracturing ax. Hans puts the heads in the center of the cave and smashes the skulls with the skull fracturing ax.

Hans looks toward Frederik who stands anxiously with his Troll Gun aiming.

FREDERIK
You film every second, and when I say GO. You go.

TIME

HANS
So, we have been waiting here for a fucking long time. Where are these mysterious non existing dwarfs.

FREDERIK
As I told you many times before. These caves run all the way to Oslo, and Helsinki. So it may take a while before they will arrive.

Hans cautiously walks toward the wall and looks at Frederik who just stares at him. Hans walks slowly further.

While he uses his flashlight and looks in a hole in the wall, he sees a solid gold statue. He steps back a few steps. And waves toward Frederik.

HANS
You need to see this.

FREDERIK
I, have seen that statue before.

Hans walks toward Frederik.

HANS
You knew that thing was there? Why did you not tell me?

FREDERIK
You would not believe me anyway.

HANS
What more is inside these caves.

FREDERIK

1000 year old Dwarfs that kill anyone! Riches beyond believe. Gold, statues, treasures, and books from thousands of years ago.

HANS

If that statue is real gold. You will never have to work again.

FREDERIK

We have everything me need. Besides it is forbidden to take anything out of these caves.

HANS

Why is it all here?

FREDERIK

Throughout time, there have been times that the system tried to erase, or change history for their own good. Often they somewhat disliked to destroy all evidence, so they kept 1 or 2 things just for future generations. Book burnings, pillaging wars, destruction and genocide of races, Gods and entire species. After a while there was a rumor among the elite of the world. The Kings and Queens from around the world. Used these caves or thousands of years to store their wealth for the afterlife and later to create a deposit for the ancient relics.

HANS

Oh my God! We need to make this public.

FREDERIK

Um, it is our job actually. To keep this a secret for eternity.

Hans starts walking through the cave and finds all sort of mysterious books, golden and silver objects.

TIME

S.O. Something in the distance. It startles Hans who is all intrigued by the objects he just recorded.

When he looks at Frederik he sees a scared Frederik who ducks down all of a sudden. And dims his light. All we see is the iridium necklace of Hans.

THE CAVE AND THE BOOK DAY

56. INT. GALLAR CAVE ELF BOOK - DAY

Frederik waves Hans down. Hans walks over toward Frederik. Frederik keeps walking.

HANS

What is it?

FREDERIK

I, have to show you something.

At a window like metal thing in the wall, he stops and grabs a key from his pocket. He opens the hatch and there are 2 books displayed. They are both open at a specific page. Hans walks toward it and films with his Pro Camera and turns on the light of the camera.

Pro Camera - We see the 2 books open at the page listed as ELVES:

However the books differ, the left book has a hand drawn image of a Quad Like Guy on the left page. On the right page of the left book there is an image of a angry, ugly female Elf with horns on her head and wings on her back.

In the right book there is a cute little elf with wings, hand drawn.

HANS

Um, they can't be both true.

FREDERIK

It just takes a tiny change in books to change the whole history people know.

This case is particular important to us Elves. This tiny change has saved our specie for the past 500 years.

But as you can see in these caves there are thousands and thousands of similar cases from around the world.

HANS

This may be true. But I doubt that nobody would have noticed to change something in all the books XXX

FREDERIK

Do you remember the story about the wiped out generation from King Bjorn .o.

HANS

Yes, how can I forget that story. You told me at least twice now.

FREDERIK

The old men died off, in a decade.
The woman had something else to do, like raising their children. While the children had no clue how an Elf looked before.

Hans looks from the image toward Frederik. And shakes his head.

57. INT. GALLAR CAVE ARMY OF THE DOOMED - DAY

Pro Camera - follows Frederik who walks slow and steady while he checks the surrounding. Troll Gun in his hands.

After a few paces he stops and waits until Hans is besides him. The camera looks into the distance where there is a body on the ground. The Camera walks slow and steady. Hans turns on his flashlight and we can see the body of a Viking which is copper clad. His body and around him is full of golden and silver coins, candle standards and amulets. We see the camera go down and Hans his hand retrieves some of the necklaces.

FREDERIK

This is one of thousands of soldiers. That we, lured into these caves. Oh, what an easy job it was.
Just showed them some golden coins into the cave. And in they went! By the thousands. All we had to do was close the entrance.

The camera gets up and walks further down the cave. Which reveals a dozen more Vikings with gold, silver and ancient relics beside them.

Beside 1 of the dead vikings there is a charcoal drawing on the wall. Depicting 2 Dwarfs with the title: Devils.

The camera zooms in on the drawing and then on the dead Viking which has been ripped to pieces.

58. INT. GALLAR CAVE PAINTING ROOM - NIGHT

Pro Camera - Frederik walks in front of the camera while Hans is filming. The camera is in night vision mode.

All of a sudden Frederik stops in his tracks seemingly listening. Hans keeps walking just besides Frederik. The camera turns toward the front and we see a large hall.

It is a round hall. With several tables and stands throughout the room.

FREDERIK

Oh Lord! This must be the fabled hall of the eternal flame of death and destruction!

HANS

Yes, I can feel the evil. Where is the gold though!

Frederik looks into the night vision display.

Beside the square table, there is Fjallar and Gallar laying down as if they are dead.

FREDERIK

Make sure there is no light!

HANS

Why, I want to check this thing out.

FREDERIK

These guys are NOT dead.

Hans kicks 1 of the Dwarfs in the head, nothing happens. The camera makes a close up of the Dwarfs.

FREDERIK

They are in hibernation. When they capture photons, in the skin. They come to live. And they are not friendly little Dwarfs!

HANS

Even my camera light?

FREDERIK

Oh yes, they just need a photon or 2.

HANS

These 2 things look like the drawing on the wall at that Vikings we saw. An hour ago.

FREDERIK

Yes! There is only 2 Dwarfs left in the realm of the humans. And we do not want to disturb them.

Hans checks out the painting on the wall. It is interesting.
But he walks toward the center of the room.

There is a 8 feet high 4 feet wide concrete pillar, the top is dome shaped. The dome however is half open.

There is a placard on it. The text is ancient writing, unknown man or elves alike. - There is also a button just below the placard -.

So, we see the hand of Hans push the button.

Inside the dome shaped pillar the inner part of the pillar starts to move.

FREDERIK

What are you up to?

The camera pans toward Frederik. While at the same time there comes bright light in the room from the side of the pillar. The nights vision of the camera turns automatically to normal vision. The camera points toward Frederik who is running toward the pillar and tries to block the light.

HANS

Hey what is going on.

FREDERIK

Watch your back. Fjallar and Gallar are waking up.

HANS

What is this light? It feels warm and dark.

FREDERIK

Get my gun!

Hans walks toward the pillar and has a close up, the is in the inner part; a ultra bright flame.

FREDERIK

Get my GUN!

Hans places the camera on the ground to go to where ever Frederik placed it. The camera is placed so that we see Frederik trying to block the light.

S.O. Something.

Frederik keeps his back toward the camera and stays still.

HANS

What is going on?

FREDERIK

Just stay still, and say nothing until the coast is clear.

Hans stands next to Frederik also with his back toward the camera. They seem to study the eternal flame of death and destruction.

Then Fjallar and Gallar come into view. They walk slow and are seemingly still half asleep, rubbing their eyes. Fjallar happens to bump against Gallar, Gallar shoves Fjallar away with violent push and he makes an angry sound.

GALLAR

Waaahhh!

Fjallar walks back toward Gallar and slaps him on the back the head. Then they walk passed Frederik and Hans. We see the Dwars walk out the hall into the tunnels. Fjallar walks toward the right while Gallar goes out the left side.

Frederik turns around and we see him grab Hans by the neck and swings him with a solid throw 10 feet backward, Hans knocks his head on the floor just in front of the camera.

Hans gets up walks straight for Frederik and tries push him. To minimal effect.

HANS

Xx

FREDERIK

Bla bla

HANS

No you bla bla

FREDERIK

You just focus on recording this ancient painting. Designs and created for the special light of eternal death and destruction.

Hans grabs the Pro Camera from the floor and starts to record the painting.

SOME INDIAN ROYALS WITH THE STATUE OF THE SHIVA

- THEY BRING IT

-- IT IS RECEIVED BY THE ELVES - BIG ELVES - WITH WINGS.

THE INDIANS BRINGS THE STATUE - AND THE ELVES TAKE IT.

THE INDIANS DELIVER 25 INDIANS.

2 OF WHOM ARE DEVOURED IN THE PAINTING BY TROLLS WHILE THE ELVES

FEAST ON THE THE BRAINS OF THE HEADS.

--

SAME SCENE THING BUT THEN WITH A RICH PERSON WHO WANTS TO HAVE A LOOK.

SO JUST LOOK INTO THE CAVES COST ONLY 2 HUMAN LIVE STOCK.

S.O. Dwarfs screaming in the distance.

They are startled, they duck down and dim the lights.

59. INT. GALLAR CAVE - DAY

Go Pro - Hans keeps walking with his flashlight trying to find the best and most valuable objects.

FREDERIK

Hans! We need to get the fuck out!

HANS

Yes I know. Just 1 more look at that big golden thing.

FREDERIK

The Dwarfs are after us. It is still a 2 hour walk back.

HANS

It will be just fine. I just need a souvenir to show back home.

S.O. Something

Frederik stands against the wall of the cave. While Hans seemingly did not hear or notice the sounds and tries to pull a large golden statue out of the wall.

S.O. Something running and breathing heavy.

We see the Troll Gun aiming, into the dark. Then the sounds stop. There is a moment of silence, nothing to hear but Hans trying to pull loose the statue. A bright light beam lights up the cave for 100 yards. Fjallar(UGLY TROLL, ANGRY) stands in the middle of the tunnel. Fjallar seems to be blind sighted by the light, however he walks straight toward the camera. Then he starts to run and shout out LOUD!.

BANG - S.O. Troll Gun. We see a clear image of Fjallar shot through the head. His head explodes the blood drips down from the roof.

HANS

What the fuck! What now again.

Hans tries to pull the statue. Frederik runs toward Hans and tries to pull him by the neck. Hans turns around while he slaps Frederiks arm. The arm however has a solid grip on his neck and pulls him through the tunnel.

While Hans screams out loud.

We hear the Troll Gun fall on the ground then we see Frederik pinning Hans against the wall with both hands.

FREDERIK

What the fuck is wrong with you?

HANS

What is wrong with you? Why are you scared for some dwarf things?

FREDERIK

Did you take the Mead?

HANS

What the fuck are you talking about? The Mead was eaten by Troll Mead Head. Long time ago.

Frederik shakes Hans rough.

FREDERIK

The jar, with the black liquid. At the entrance.

Hans looks bewildered into the camera.

HANS

I just tasted it.

Frederik shoves Hans away against the wall.

FREDERIK

Oh lord! Humans.

Fjallar starts to scream out loud. The camera pans around and we see Fjallar get up while he looks straight into the camera. Frederiks hand grabs Hans his jacket and pulls him along, into the dark.

60. INT. GALLAR CAVE SAS - DAY

Go Pro - They run in the dark, in the distance we hear Fjallar shouting out loud. When the light turns on for a second we see 5 soldiers down on the ground. The light goes off.

FREDERIK

Wait! We may have some goodies here.

HANS

I, have got all the goodies, I, can carry. We need you friend to help us, to carry all the gold.

FREDERIK

Just stay put okay. DO NOT GO WALK AROUND.

Frederik turns on the light for a few seconds while he looks across the bodies. They are tactical look, no flags, no name cards but with modern style rifles and gear. Then he uses a small LED light to investigate.

He goes through the pockets of the soldier in front of him. The pockets are empty, the he pulls his shirt away by the neck apparently to check for a dog-tag. There is however no necklace. Then he checks the hands apparently for a wedding ring. But the hands are clear of any rings.

He grabs the gun that is next to the soldier. He checks if the gun still loads, and works as should be. He looks through the sight and then turns on the night vision scope on the rifle.

Hans stands just behind Frederik.

HANS

Hey, I, have never seen a gun like that.

Hans grabs the gun, Frederik stands up and looks at Hans. Hans looks through the sight into the abyss of the tunnel. BANG - BANG - Bang S.O. rapid gunfire from the rifle.

Frederik takes the gun away from Hans.

Hans is exited.

HANS

That fucking thing was over there.
I, shot him in the fucking head.

Frederik shakes his head. He grabs some extra magazines from the soldiers body.

Frederik turns around suddenly after he hears a Dwarf screaming out loud from just in front of him in the dark of the tunnel. So he turns on his bright flashlight and we see the bloody face of Gallar that is screaming his lungs out.

Gallar attacks Frederik. Frederik falls backward and keeps the Dwarf as far away from him as he can with his hands. The Dwarf screams straight into Frederiks face and tries to bite him. Then we see a golden candle stick bend on the Dwarf his head. After Hans hits the Troll with the golden candle stick. The troll however does not seem to notice and keeps trying to bite Frederik.

Frederik keeps the neck of the Dwarf in his left hand and starts beating him with his right fist.

After a couple of hits, he grabs the Dwarf by the neck in his right hand. And starts beating with his left fist.

FREDERIK
Grab The Gun.

While Frederik keeps the dwarf busy. Hans grabs the Troll Gun.

BOOM - S.O. Troll Gun just besides the camera. The dwarf is shot straight through the head, right in front of the camera. His head explodes blood and brains drip down, Frederik.

HANS
Oh man! I shot him twice now. I, will be the Point leader. Of this round.

Frederik drops the Dwarf on the side. And places some golden statue on his body.

FREDERIK
Just take the gun okay. We need to gooo! GO! GO! GO!

Hans grabs the gun and runs through the cave while Frederik follows a mere feet behind.

61. INT. GALLAR CAVE CHASED BY FJALLAR AND GALLER - DAY

GoPro -

They are inside the dark cave only the iridium light from Hans his necklace is visible.

S.O. Something in the distance. Frederik waves Hans down. Yet he does not notice him.

FREDERIK
Shh Hans.

HANS
Yes, what the fuck do you want.

FREDERIK
Hey silent. There is something.

HANS
Yes, you keep scaring me with your stories. But, there is nothing inside here.

S.O. Something running. We see Hans duck down, all of a sudden.

He crawls toward the camera.

HANS
What the fuck was That?

FREDERIK
Shhh!

A loud scream from a Dwarf is heard.

Frederik's arm is visibly pressing down on Hans his shoulder.

And keeps him on the ground, while something runs passed them with great speed. We hear it run into the distance just to disappear.

FREDERIK
Do you believe me now?

HANS
Why the fuck are you scared for something that does not even notice us. Next time we gonna capture it. We will take it to the police and the media. We will be rich and famous.

FREDERIK
Yes! I, do agree. But first we need to get out!

Hans jumps up and starts hiking. Frederik jumps up as well and makes a few paces before he can grab Hans his shoulder and pulls him rather violently. Then we can see Hans his face in the light of his necklace. His face is bewildered, almost as if he is on drugs. Frederik takes a step back.

FREDERIK
Are you, okay?

HANS
I am fucking great. All these riches in here. I will never ever have to work again.

FREDERIK
Me was told, that you were paid mighty handsomely for this assignment.

HANS
Yeah, but they don't know that all this gold is here. Just for the taking.

FREDERIK
What is that with you Humans, and Gold.

While he says that Hans looks over to 1 side. He shines his flashlight and sees a large golden vase with pearl inlays.

Hans walks resolutely toward the vase with his flashlight directed straight on the vase. The camera pans from the 1 side of the tunnel toward the other. Nothing but total darkness then the camera follows Hans. While the camera pans across Hans, it is visible that there are tons of golden necklaces, golden rings and golden candle standards sticking out of his pockets. Even his Pro Camera has been decorated with a dozens of golden amulets and chains.

TIME

Frederik runs full speed. We hear Fjallar and Gallar screaming behind him. When he reaches a fork in the cave he turns around and keeps his fists straight in front of him fjallar and Gallar run straight against his fists and drop down on the spot. The camera looks down and we see Fjallar and Gallar on the ground while the boot of Frederik stamps on their heads until they lay silent on the ground.

In the distance we hear Hans Shouting.

HANS

Hey Frederik, where the fuck is that golden bull you promised me!

Frederik uses the iridium light to find his way through the cave. He keeps running.

62. INT. GALLAR CAVE LOST - DAY

Hans is killed - however - he comes back to live.

Frederik is surrounded by Fjallar on the left side and Gallar on the right side. They keep a little distance from him. In front of him there is Hans dead. However he starts to move again.

And starts violently attacking Frederik.

63. INT. GALLAR CAVE - NIGHT

GoPro -

Fjallar, Gallar and Hans run behind Frederik.

He runs in the dark.

He kills all 3. And runs again.

While e runs the tunnel turns into a hall he sees a rope and jumps into it.

He swing and swings then he tries to swing at a ledge. He steps with 1 foot on the ledge. So he hangs backward holding onto the rope and his feet are on the ledge. While he lets go of the rope and tries to stand up on the ledge. He falls down on the a ancient painting. He is wrapped up in the paper of the painting. We hear Fjallar, Gallar and Hans run toward him, while they shout and scream out loud. They however run passed him, into the tunnel. Frederik lays still while he listens.

Fjallar, Gallar, and Hans can be heard coming back while they scream, and shout out loud. They are not searching for him now more, but they are fighting among each-other.

He looks at his watch, which shows the time: 2:12 AM.

He lays in the paper while he listens and waits. He looks over where they are fighting he sees total blackness.

TIME

We still hear Fjallar, Gallar and Hans fighting among them selfs. It is a loud noisy fight.

When he looks at his watch again, we see that it is, 2:41 AM.

He rolls out of the painting paper, he uses the iridium necklace to shine a tiny bit of light and we can see a part of the painting. Which is painted with gold. He stands up slowly, the light from the necklace shines on the fighting Fjallar and Hans. While Gallar is dead on the ground his neck is bitten and tore open with blood pooling around him.

Frederik stands up slowly and starts walking, the light from his necklace shows the start of the tunnel. He walks slowly, then we hear the sound of paper ripping. s.o. PAPER SHEERING. He stops in his tracks and stands still. The screaming and shouting from the fighting is stopped all of a sudden. It is totally silent for 2 seconds. Then we hear Fjallar, Gallar and Hans scream and shout out loud while they run for Frederik.

SEMI TIME

64. INT. GALLAR CAVE - NIGHT

Fjallar, Gallar and Hans run behind Frederik.

He runs in the dark, in the distance there is a faint light. He runs toward it while we hear Fjallar, Gallar and Hans shouting and screaming while they chase him.

While he is near the light he sees that the light comes from the eyes from Shiva with her 7 arms. He makes a super jump on 1 of the arms and jumps straight on top of the head. He looks down and sees Fjallar, Gallar and Hans stop straight in front of the statue of Shiva. They look around and around.

Fjallar looks straight at Hans, Hans punches Fjallar with mighty strength. Fjallar flies backward with his head on the stone floor. Knocked out cold. Gallar jumps onto Fjallar and starts beating him in the face. Hans jumps on Gallar's back and grabs him in a choke-hold, while they fall on the floor.

Frederik grabs the Pro Camera, turns it on. The display of the Pro camera is very bright. So we have a short look in the surrounding and we see: That the statue of Shiva is solid gold.

He places his hand across the display, so it is dark again.

He pushes a button and the display turns into a dim green display. He uses the night vision function of the Pro Camera to look around. And sees:

Then he zooms in on the fight. We see that Hans is dead on the ground while Fjallar and Gallar kick on Hans his head.

Frederik slowly gets down the statue and uses the night vision function of the camera to walk slow and steady passed the fighting trio and walks into the dark tunnel.

65. INT. GALLAR CAVE - NIGHT

Frederik is running in the dark. He turns on his Led light and sees in the distance the door from which they came from.

He trips down on the ground. We hear Fjallar, Gallar and Hans closing in while they shout and scream out loud.

Frederik jumps on his feet and runs toward the door. However it is locked. So he tries to grab the key from his pocket.

FREDERIK

AHHHH!

He looks down and sees Fjallar who is biting in his leg. Frederik kicks with his leg but Fjallar does not let go of his bite. Frederik drops down the Pro Camera, and starts punching Fjallar with mighty strength in the head. While he does that Gallar jumps on his neck, and will not let go.

Frederik lands a mighty punch on Gallar his face and Gallar drops dead. Hans starts punching Frederik in the face, while Fjallar is still on his back. Frederik starts punching back with both fists. Left hook right hook, but Hans takes it like a champ. Frederik looks over to his left side where the jar with the MEAD stands. He sees that the jar is half empty. So he turns toward Hans and pushes him with two hands back. And makes flying kick straight in face. We happen to see that Hans his neck is broken while he falls backward as if he is a plank of timber.

Frederik retrieves the key from his pocket and runs toward the door, all the while Gallar is still hanging on his back holding onto his neck.

He opens the door with the key, he throws open the door. We see his hand grab the neck of Gallar. He throws the Dwarf with a mighty throw into the hall he just came from. We see Gallar land just besides Fjallar. Fjallar happens just to stand up on his feet and shake his head as if he just woke up. Frederik grabs the Pro Camera and runs into the Iron gate sluices.

66. INT. GALLAR CAVE DOOR SLUICE - NIGHT

Frederik slams the iron door behind him - BANG-. We hear Fjallar, Gallar and Hans run against the door. They scream out loud. While they keep banging the door. The door dents.

Frederik turns toward the other Iron door.

FREDERIK

Heyy Bjorn!

Frederik listens with his ear against the door. But apparently he hears nothing.

FREDERIK

Heyy Bjorn! Are you there? Anybody!

FREDERIK

FUCKKK!

FREDERIK

BJORNNN WHERE THE FUCK ARE YOU?

FREDERIK

IT HAS BEEN HOURS NOW.

FREDERIK

WHAT FUCKING DAY IS IT BJORN?

S.O. Iron gate opening.

67. INT. GALLAR CAVE ENTRANCE - DAY

/ Gallar is in the sluice still alive fighting with Frederik.

GoPro - The iron door opens slow and steady, the light the sun shines through the crack. Frederik, tries to hold on to the Dwarf.

The gate opens slow The Dwarf Gallar tries to get out of the gate.

Gallar jumps through the gate while the hand from Frederik hold on to a piece of Gallar his trouser that rips apart with the sound of sheering cotton.

Frederik looks outside.

FREDERIK
Stop that fucking Dwarf, Bjorn!

ERICKSON (OFF CAMERA)
What the fuck, is this shit!

Frederik peeks outside. He sees Erickson standing next to the entrance while he points his .50 Cal straight to Frederik his head. Gallar runs to the left side out of view of the GoPro

FREDERIK
Where the fuck is, Bjorn?

ERICKSON
None of your business. Just give me the gold.

BJORN (OFF CAMERA)
Do not believe them Frederik! They are after the gold!

S.O. A fist hitting a head.

BJORN Auw!

FREDERIK
How the fuck did you find this place?

There is a commotion behind Frederik outside the view of the camera. - Bjorn starts to scream out loud. While we hear 3 guys shouting.

TROLL HUNTER #1
Fuck! What the fuck is going on?

TROLL HUNTER #2
That fucker is flying away.

TROLL HUNTER #3
SHOOT THAT THING!

Erickson turns around which makes the .50 Cal turn slightly so it touches the wall of the entrance with the barrel.

Frederik hands grabs the gun by the barrel and pulls on it with force. Erickson is pulled backwards.

ERICKSON HELP!

While Frederik pulls Erickson onto the ground. We hear gunshots from 3 rifles shooting. Erickson lands with the back of his head on the concrete and is knocked out cold.

Frederik gets out of the Iron gate sluice.

He looks around and sees 1 soldier doing this or that. While 3 Troll Hunters are looking into the sky and shooting at something that we can not see from this camera angle.

The 1 troll Hunter sees Frederik and shouts out loud.

TROLL HUNTER #3

He is out! Shoot him.

Troll Hunter #3, turns around with his rifle to his shoulder. Frederik makes 2 steps in his direction and makes a kick as if he wants to kick in a door. The gun of the Troll Hunter is fired just when the kick lands, so we see a muzzle flash and hear a gunshot. The kick lands straight on the Troll Hunter's chest who flies backward for 3 feet.

Semitime:

69. EXT. TRAIL - DAY

FLASHBACK

A Go Pro is turned on - it shows Bjorn captured with a big rifle pointed straight at his head. Behind him there are 2 dead Troll Hunters. 1 is missing his head. His head is beside him on the ground his skull is cracked open and the brains are missing.

TROLL HUNTER #1

Why did you eat Jack his brains?

TROLL HUNTER #2

Were you thát hungry?

ERICKSON

Kill that son of a bitch!

BJORN

Just take it easy, guys. You are on our ancient hunting grounds. It is a Troll reservation.

ERICKSON

Shoot that motherfucker!

Troll Hunter #3 who is searching the pockets of Bjorn retrieves a BIG key from his left chest pocket of his jacket.

He shows it toward Erickson. Erickson looks straight at the key, makes 4 paces and grabs the key and looks at the key.

ERICKSON

That MUST be the key into those mysterious tunnels.

TROLL HUNTER #2

We have followed you with a radio tracking device. We know where those caves are Buddy Boy!

ERICKSON

What is in those tunnels, that is so special that you guys need to access with 2 different keys?

Bjorn tries to grab the key. However a sucker punch knocks him down on the ground.

TIME

70. EXT. TRAIL - NIGHT

Frederik hunts down Gallar - ends up flying with Gallar on top. He shoots him after Gallar eats him they both fall down on the ground.

/ Camera needs to see the wings getting from his back.

71. EXT. RAVINE - DAY

Pro Camera - is turned on, it shakes a little bit while we see 4 black clad, soldiers with black ski masks on.

SOLDIER #1 (OFF CAMERA)

This thing seems to work.

SOLDIER #2

Take a blood sample. ASAP!

Soldier #3, takes a syringe and ducks down.

SOLDIER #2

Film that Mike! That camera is what this is all about!

The camera turns down and we see Frederik dead on the ground with a big gun wound in the face.

A thin layer of snow is on top of him. While Soldier #3 takes a blood sample from Frederik. Soldier #3, cleans the snow of Frederik and we see that he has wings on his back. Soldier #3, keeps the syringe against the light to have a look. Then the liquid inside burns through the syringe and leaves a smoke and molten syringe in the hand of Soldier #3.

SOLDIER #2

FUCK THAT! We Getting out of here!
Keep filming while we dispose of the evidence.

So the soldiers jump in the helicopter. They fly up while the body of Frederik gets smaller and smaller a Big explosion follows. Then the camera shuts down.

The End.
